REGULATION AND MANAGEMENT OF THE HOUSE

Application of Rules

1 The proceedings in the House of Assembly of Nova Scotia and in all committees of the House shall be conducted according to the following Rules. 1955 R.1; 1980 R.1.

Cases not provided for

2 In all cases not herein provided for, the question shall be decided by the Speaker and, in making such decision, the Speaker shall be guided by

Firstly - the usages and precedents of this House;

Secondly - the standing and sessional orders and forms of the House of Commons of Canada in force at the time; and

Thirdly - in all cases not provided for hereafter or by the usages and precedents of this House or by the standing and sessional orders or usages of the House of Commons of Canada, the usages and customs of the House of Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland in force at the time. 1955 R. 2 am.; 1980 R. 2; am. 1996.

TIME OF SITTINGS

Ordinary hours of meeting

3 (1) The time for the ordinary meeting of the House is at one o'clock in the afternoon on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday and at nine o'clock in the forenoon on Friday. 1955 R. 3 am.; 1980 R. 3(1); am. 1987; am. 2014.

Ordinary adjournment hours

(2) The time for the ordinary adjournment of the House is at six o'clock in the afternoon on Tuesday and Thursday, thirty minutes after five o'clock in the afternoon on Wednesday and one o'clock in the afternoon on Friday. 1980 R. 3(2); am. 1987; am. 2014.

House shall not meet

(3) The House shall not meet on New Year's Day, Good Friday, Easter Sunday, Easter Monday, Victoria Day, Canada Day, Labour Day, Thanksgiving Day, Remembrance Day, Christmas Day, Boxing Day, a Saturday, a Sunday or a Monday, and the week in each year customarily observed by the schools at the seat of the Legislature as the "March Break" in accordance with a determination made by the Minister of Education. 1987 R. 3(3); am. 2014.

Monday sitting

(3A) Notwithstanding paragraph (3), the House may meet on a Monday and on a Monday the Order of Business for the consideration of the House on a Monday shall be the same as for Tuesday, Thursday and Friday except that there shall be no ORAL QUESTIONS PUT BY MEMBERS TO MINISTERS. 2014 R. 3(3A).

Notice of commencement of sitting

(4) Where the House stands adjourned for a period of ten sitting days or more, notice of the commencement of the House thereafter shall be given by the Speaker to the Members at least thirty days prior to such commencement to the address on file at the Office of the Speaker for that Member. 1987 R. 3(4); am. 2014.

Notice of earlier commencement

(5) Notwithstanding paragraph (4), wherever the House stands adjourned for a period of ten sitting days or more, if the Speaker is satisfied, after consultation with the Government, that the public interest requires that the House shall meet at an earlier time, the Speaker may give notice that being so satisfied the House shall meet, and thereupon the House shall meet to transact its business as if it had been duly adjourned to that time and in the event of the Speaker being unable to act owing to illness or other cause, the Deputy Speaker, or, failing the Deputy Speaker, the Chairman of the Law Amendments Committee shall act in the Speaker's stead for these purposes. 1987 R. 3(5).

Absence of quorum at meeting hour

(6) If a quorum of the House is not present at the time appointed for the ordinary meeting of the House, the Speaker may take the Chair and adjourn the House without putting any question. 1980 R. 3(3); am. 1996.

Friday adjournment

(7) When the House rises on Friday it shall stand adjourned, unless otherwise ordered, until the following Tuesday. 1980 R. 3(4); am. 2014.

Adjournment at ordinary time

4 (1) Unless otherwise ordered or provided by these Rules, at the ordinary time of adjournment the proceedings of the House shall be interrupted by the Speaker, or if the House is in Committee of the Whole, by the Chairman thereof who shall rise and report progress and the Speaker shall adjourn the House without question put. 1980 R. 4(1); am. 1996.

Uncompleted business at adjournment time

(2) Unless otherwise ordered or provided by these Rules, all business not disposed of at the time of adjournment shall stand over until the next sitting day when it shall be placed on the Order Paper of the day under its normal order of business and taken up at the stage where its progress was interrupted at the next sitting day when it is called under that order of business. 1955 R. 15(3)-(5) (part) am.; 1980 R. 4(2); am. 1987.

MOMENT OF INTERRUPTION

Moment of interruption

5 (1) At thirty minutes after five o'clock in the afternoon on a Wednesday, being the ordinary time of adjournment of the House, or at such other hour of adjournment as the House has previously approved, the proceedings on any business then under consideration shall be interrupted, except as otherwise provided in these Rules; and if the House is then in Committee the Chairman shall leave the Chair and, if the business of the Committee has not been completed, shall report progress and ask leave to sit again; and the moment at which business is so interrupted is referred to in these Rules as "the moment of interruption". 1980 R. 5(1); am. 2014.

Voting at moment of interruption

(2) If at the moment of interruption the House or a Committee of the House is in the process of voting upon a question, the business shall not be interrupted until that question and any proceedings directly related thereto shall have been disposed of. 1980 R. 5(2).

Business after moment of interruption

(3) After any voting under consideration at the moment of interruption has been completed, any unopposed business may be proceeded with without amendment or debate. 1980 R. 5(3).

Adjournment at moment of interruption

(4) At the moment of interruption and after any voting or unopposed business has been disposed of, the Speaker shall adjourn the House, without any question being put, unless a motion is moved pursuant to paragraph (5) of this Rule. 1980 R. 5(4); am. 1996.

Proceedings after moment of interruption

(5) At the conclusion of business immediately following the moment of interruption on a Wednesday a non-government Member may make a motion concerning a matter which is listed on the Order Paper under the item of business MOTIONS OTHER THAN GOVERNMENT MOTIONS, or which would normally be listed on the Order Paper under that item of business or concerning a matter arising out of oral questions put by Members to Ministers and in respect of which he has given a notice of his intention to do so to the Clerk at least one hour prior to the commencement of that day's sitting. 1980 R. 5(5); am. 2014.

Draw of subjects by Clerk

(6) During the hour prior to the commencement of Wednesday's sitting, the Clerk shall conduct a draw to determine the order in which Members who have given notice to the Clerk may move motions pursuant to paragraph (5) and in conducting such draw the Clerk shall limit a Member to one matter for that day's sitting and at the commencement of the sitting shall report the result of the draw to the Speaker. 1980 R. 5(6); am. 1996; am. 2014.

Limit on draw

(6A) The draw each Wednesday shall be limited to the Members of one caucus and shall be from among the Members of a different caucus each Wednesday in rotation as determined by the Speaker. 2014 R. 5(6A).

Length of speeches

(7) No Member may speak for more than ten minutes during the debate on a motion called pursuant to paragraph (5). 1980 R. 5(7).

Dispensing with quorum

(8) During the consideration of a motion pursuant to paragraph (5), the quorum requirements provided for in these Rules shall not apply. 1980 R. 5(8).

Voting dispensed with

(9) No vote shall be called upon any motion made pursuant to paragraph (5). 1980 R. 5(9).

Termination of business

(10) All business taken up pursuant to this Rule shall terminate after one half hour. 1980 R. 5(10); am. 2014.

EXTENDED SITTING HOURS

5A Repealed 2014.

5B Repealed 2014.Removal of limit on hours House can sit

5C (1) Notwithstanding Rules 3 and 4, the time for the meeting of the House, the time for the adjournment of the House and the maximum number of hours the House may sit during a day may be determined by the House by majority vote on the motion of the Government House Leader or the Leader's substitute. 1996 R. 5C(1); am. 2014.

No notice of motion, amendment or debate

(2) No notice of motion is required for a motion pursuant to paragraph (1) and the question shall be put forthwith by the Speaker without amendment or debate. 1996 R. 5C(2).

QUORUM

Quorum

6 (1) The presence of at least fifteen Members of the House, including the Speaker, shall be necessary to constitute a meeting of the House for the exercise of its powers. 1955 R. 5(1); 1980 R. 6(1); am. 1996.

Adjournment for lack of quorum

(2) If at the time of the meeting there be not a quorum, the Speaker may take the Chair and adjourn the House until the next sitting day. 1980 R. 6(2); am. 1996.

Lack of quorum during sitting

(3) If at any time the attention of the Speaker is called to the fact that there is no quorum present, the Speaker will proceed at once to count the House and if there are not fifteen Members present, including himself, the Speaker will then adjourn the House without question put. 1980 R. 6(3); am. 1996.

Procedure on counting House

(4) While the Speaker is counting the House, the doors shall remain open and Members may come in during the whole time occupied by the counting, but not after completion of the count. 1980 R. 6(4); am. 1996.

Time of next sitting

(5) The adjournment shall be until the usual hour of the next sitting day and whenever the Speaker adjourns the House for want of a quorum, the time of the adjournment, and the names of the Members then present, shall be inserted in the Journal. 1980 R. 6(5); am. 1996.

Lack of quorum in CWH

(6) If at any time when the House is in Committee the Chairman notes that fifteen Members, including himself, are not present, he shall leave the Chair and the Speaker shall resume the Chair and the provisions of paragraph (3) of this Rule shall then apply; and if fifteen Members are then present the House shall again resolve itself into a Committee without question put. 1980 R. 6(6); am. 1996.

THE SPEAKER

Election of Speaker

6A (1) After each general election and at any other time the office of Speaker is vacant, the House shall elect the Speaker before conducting any other business. 1998 R. 6A(1).

No interruption, adjournment or debate

(2) The election of the Speaker shall not be interrupted by any other proceeding and, notwithstanding any other rule, no adjournment or debate is in order until the election of the Speaker is concluded. 1998 R. 6A(2).

Procedure for election of Speaker

6B The Speaker shall be elected in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) a member may nominate another member as a candidate for election as the Speaker;

(b) a member of the Executive Council, the Leader of the Opposition or the leader of a recognized party is not eligible to be a candidate;

(c) a nomination shall be made orally by the member rising in his or her place;

(d) the member nominated shall be asked if he or she accepts the nomination and, if the member accepts the nomination, the member becomes a candidate;

(e) upon there being no further nominations, the nominations shall be declared closed and no further nominations shall be made;

(f) if there is only one candidate, that member shall be declared elected as Speaker;

(g) if there is more than one candidate, an election shall be held by secret ballot;

(h) every member has a vote and no member has a casting vote;

(i) a member shall vote by printing the name of the candidate being voted for on a ballot provided by the Clerk of the House and placing the ballot in a receptacle provided for that purpose by the Clerk;

(j) when the voting is completed, the Clerk of the House shall withdraw from the House and count the ballots;

(k) the House Leader of each party may observe the counting of the ballots;

(l) upon the ballots being counted, the Clerk of the House shall announce the results in the House;

(m) if one candidate receives a majority of the votes cast, that candidate shall be declared elected;

(n) if no candidate receives a majority of the votes cast, the candidate receiving the fewest votes ceases to be a candidate;

(o) if two or more candidates are tied in receiving the fewest number of votes, both candidates cease to be candidates unless there would not be a least two candidates remaining;

(p) before the commencement of the next ballot, a candidate may withdraw from the election by oral declaration by the candidate rising in his or her place;

(q) the procedure shall be repeated until one candidate receives a majority of the votes cast;

(r) upon election of the Speaker, the Clerk of the House shall destroy all the ballots. 1998 R. 6B.

Jurisdiction of Speaker

7 The Speaker shall have jurisdiction over all matters concerning Province House and its environs as defined by the public streets immediately adjacent thereto. 1980 R. 7; am. 1996; am. 2014.

Powers and privileges of Speaker

8 The Speaker shall exercise all the powers and privileges necessary for the performance of his duties and the maintenance of the privileges of the Members and the House. 1980 R. 8; am. 1996.

Duties of Speaker

9 (1) The Speaker shall preserve order and decorum, and shall decide questions of order; in explaining a point of order or practice, he shall state the Rule or authority applicable to the case. 1955 R. 6 am.; 1980 R. 9(1); am. 1996.

Appeal of Speaker's ruling

(2) The Speaker's ruling shall not be subject to appeal or question except by substantive motion upon proper notice having been given. 1980 R. 9(2); am. 1996.

Speaker's role in debate in House and casting vote

10 (1) The Speaker shall not take part in any debate before the House. In case of an equality of voices, the Speaker gives a casting vote, and any reasons stated by him are entered in the Journal. 1955 R. 9(1); 1980 R. 10(1); am. 1996.

Speaker's role in CWH

(2) The Speaker may take part in proceedings in all Committees of the Whole House and, for that purpose, his place shall be the place of the Chairman of the Committee. 1955 R. 9(2); 1980 R. 10(2); am. 1996.

CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES AND DEPUTY SPEAKER

Chairman of Committees and Deputy Speaker election, term, etc.

11 (1) At the beginning of the first session of each General Assembly, the House shall elect from among its Members a Member to be Chairman of Committees and Deputy Speaker for the duration of that General Assembly, who shall take the Chair of all Committees of the Whole House and who may, at the request of the Speaker, take the Chair of the House with, in such case, all the powers of the Speaker as conferred by these Rules; and if the Member so elected shall cease to be a Member of the House, the House shall proceed forthwith to elect a successor for the remainder of the General Assembly.

Election of Chairman of Committees

(2) The Chairman of Committees and Deputy Speaker shall be elected in the same manner as the Speaker.

Where more than one Chairman of Committees

(3) Where there is more than one Chairman of Committees and Deputy Speaker, their powers and duties under these Rules shall be as assigned by the Speaker. 1955 R. 36 am.; 1980 R. 11; am. 1996; am. 1998.

Absence of Speaker

12 (1) Whenever the House shall be informed of the absence of the Speaker, the Chairman of Committees and Deputy Speaker shall take the Chair and perform all the duties of the Speaker. 1955 R. 7 am.; 1980 R. 12; am. 1996; 2014 R. 12(1).

Absence of Speaker and of Chairman of Committees

(2) In the absence of the Chairman of Committees and Deputy Speaker, the House shall, on motion put by the Clerk, appoint any Member of the House to take the Chair of the House during such absence. 1955 R. 7 am.; 1980 R. 12; am. 1996; 2014 R. 12(2).

Member may take Chair at request of Speaker or Chairman of Committees

(3) Notwithstanding paragraph (2), any Member may, at the request of the Speaker or the request of the Chairman of Committees and Deputy Speaker, take the Chair during the absence of both the Speaker and the Chairman. 2014 R. 12(3).

COMMITTEE ON ASSEMBLY MATTERS

Composition of Committee

12A(1) There is hereby established a Committee on Assembly Matters composed of the Speaker and nine other members appointed by the Special Committee established pursuant to paragraph (1) of Rule 60 to prepare and report listings of members to

Permitted motions during debate

(2) When a question is under debate, no motion shall be made, except as provided elsewhere in these Rules, other than an amendment to that question or a motion for the adjournment of the debate; and the question on a motion for adjournment of the debate shall be put without debate. 1955 R. 24(2) am.; 1980 R. 27(2).

Disorderly conduct by Member

28 (1) The Speaker may order any Member who disregards the authority of the Chair or whose conduct is otherwise disorderly to withdraw immediately from the House during the remainder of that day's sitting. 1980 R. 28(1); am. 1996.

Naming and suspension of Member

(2) If a Member fails to comply with an order of the Chair made pursuant to paragraph (1), or in any other case where the conduct of the Member appears to the Speaker to be grossly disorderly, that Member may be named by the Speaker for the offence of disorderly conduct; then, the Speaker shall forthwith put the Question "that such Member be suspended from the service of the House". 1980 R. 28(2); am. 1996.

Duration of suspension

(3) If any Member be suspended pursuant to this Rule, his suspension shall continue until the fifth day on which the House shall sit after the day on which he was suspended or for such other period as the House, on motion made after notice given, shall order. 1980 R. 28(3).

Removal of suspended Member by Sergeant-at-Arms

(4) When a Member has been suspended pursuant to this Rule from the service of the House, the Speaker shall direct him to leave the House and if he shall refuse to obey the direction of the Speaker, the Speaker shall order the Sergeant-at-Arms to escort that Member from the House, and if that Member then refuses to comply with the direction of the Speaker, the Speaker shall then authorize the use of such force as is necessary in order to compel obedience to his direction. 1980 R. 28(4); am. 1996.

PRIVILEGE

Consideration of matter of privilege

29 (1) Whenever any matter of privilege arises, it shall be taken into consideration immediately, but the Speaker may, if he thinks fit, delay giving his ruling on a question of privilege raised with him. 1955 R. 25 am.; 1980 R. 29(1); am. 1996.

Notice to Speaker of question

(2) A Member intending to raise a question of privilege shall give notice to the Speaker before the meeting of the House if practicable. 1980 R. 29(2); am. 1996.

STATEMENTS BY MEMBERS

Two one-minute statements

29A (1) On the order of the day STATEMENTS BY MEMBERS being read, Members may each make two one-minute statements. 2014 R. 29A(1).

No statements after Question Period

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), no STATEMENTS BY MEMBERS may be made after the commencement of the order of the day QUESTIONS PUT BY MEMBERS TO MINISTERS. 2014 R. 29A(2).

QUESTIONS PUT BY MEMBERS

Written questions to Ministers

30 (1) A Member may give written notice to the Clerk of the House of a question to a Minister of the Crown to which he desires a written answer; and such questions must be limited to requesting information or action on matters for which a Minister is officially responsible. 1955 R. 26 am.; 1980 R. 30(1).

Record of questions and answers

(2) A list of all such questions of which notice has been given but which have not yet been answered shall be published with the Orders of the Day; and the question shall be published in the Report of the Debates and Proceedings of the House on the day following the day it is filed with the Clerk. 1980 R. 30(2); am. 1987.

Oral questions

31 (1) On the order of the day ORAL QUESTIONS PUT BY MEMBERS TO MINISTERS being read on a Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, oral questions asking for information or action may be put without notice to Ministers of the Crown for not more than fifty minutes; and any such questions shall be concisely put and shall relate only to matters for which a Minister is officially responsible. 1987 R. 31(1); am. 2014.

Form of question and answer

(2) In putting any such question or in replying to the same, no argument or opinion is to be offered nor any facts stated except so far as may be necessary to explain the same and, in answering any such question, the matter to which the same refers shall not be debated. 1955 R. 26(5) am.; 1980 R. 31(2).

Supplementary questions

(3) Members are permitted one supplementary question to a question except that the leaders of a recognized party are permitted two supplementary questions to their first question each day. 2014 R. 31(3).

MOTIONS

Notices of motion

32 (1) Except as provided in these Rules, two days' notice shall be given of a motion to present a resolution or address for an order of the House, for the appointment of any committee or for placing a question on the Order Paper; but this Rule shall not apply to Bills after their introduction, or to private Bills, or to the times of meeting or adjournment of the House. 1955 R. 28 am.; 1980 R. 32(1); am. 1987.

Limit on oral notices of motion

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), on the order of the day NOTICES OF MOTION being read, not more than four notices of motion may be given for a resolution of the House orally in the House on a sitting day and then only with respect to business of the House or a committee of the House, nor may a member give orally in the House at any time a notice of motion for an order of the House. 1987 R. 32(2); am. 1987; am. 2014.

Written notices of motion

(3) A Member may give any number of notices for a resolution or order of the House in writing on a sitting day by depositing the same with the Clerk before the sitting of the House and each such notice shall be published in the Report of the Debates and Proceedings of the House for that day, and be placed under the appropriate Order of the Day. 1987 R. 32(3).

Congratulatory resolution

(4) A notice of motion pursuant to paragraph (3) may be labelled by the Member as a “congratulatory resolution” if congratulatory in nature and recognizes an individual, an organization or a community and is not partisan in nature or related to the expenditure of money. 2014 R. 32(4).

Motion to approve all congratulatory resolutions

(5) A motion may be made without notice to approve all congratulatory resolutions that have been deposited with the Clerk pursuant to paragraph (3) that have not been otherwise considered by the House and such a motion is not debatable. 2014 R. 32(5).

Effect of approval

(6) A congratulatory resolution approved pursuant to paragraph (5) is deemed to have been passed by the House. 2014 R. 32(6).

Waiver of notice of motion

33 A motion may be made by unanimous consent of the House without notice having been given under Rule 32. 1955 R. 29 am.; 1980 R. 33.

Motions to be in writing

34 (1) All motions and amendments shall be in writing before being debated or put from the Chair. 1955 R. 30 am.; 1980 R. 34(1); am. 1987.

Seconding of motions not required

(2) No motion nor amendment shall require to be seconded when given or moved in the House or a Committee. 1980 R. 34(2).

Withdrawal of motion

35 A Member who has made a motion may withdraw the same with the unanimous consent of the House. 1955 R. 31; 1980 R. 35.

Motion to go into CWH, limit on debate

36 No debate shall be permitted on a motion to resolve the House into Committee of the Whole except that upon a motion to resolve the House into Committee of the Whole on Supply a debate not exceeding forty-five minutes in length is permitted and no Member shall speak for more than fifteen minutes. 1980 R. 36.

Improper motion

37 Whenever the Speaker is of the opinion that a motion offered to the House is contrary to the Rules and Privileges of the Legislature, he shall apprise the House thereof and quote the Rule or authority applicable to the case. 1955 R. 34 am.; 1980 R. 37; am. 1996; am. 2014.

Debate on constitutional amendment

37A (1) Debate on a Government motion proposing amendments to the Constitution of Canada pursuant to Part V of The Constitution Act, 1982, and on any amendments proposed to that motion, shall, subject to paragraph (3) of Rule 17, take precedence over all other business of the House for five sitting days unless debate has been concluded prior thereto. 1993 R. 37A(1); am. 2014.

Submissions from general public

(2) When the debate has been concluded the Speaker shall put the question on the motion and the motion shall be referred to the Law Amendments Committee or, if the House so directs, to a Standing or Special Committee of the House and the Committee to which the motion is referred shall receive submissions from the general public and report back to the House. 1993 R. 37A(2); am. 1996.

Debate after Committee report

(3) When the Committee to which the motion was referred reports back to the House, the motion shall be debated for five days unless debate is concluded prior thereto at which time the Speaker shall put the question on the motion. 1993 R. 37A(3); am. 1996.

DIVISIONS

Termination of debate on question on motion

38 (1) After the Speaker or the Chairman has put the question on a motion or an amendment, no further debate shall be permitted. 1980 R. 38(1); am. 1996.

Majority decision required

(2) All questions shall be decided by a majority of voices except where a specific Rule provides otherwise. 1980 R. 38(2).

Recording of votes on division

(3) Upon a division, the yeas and nays shall not be entered upon the Minutes unless demanded by two Members. 1955 R. 35(2); 1980 R. 38(3).

Roll call and duration of division bells ringing

(4) When a roll call vote is demanded by at least two Members, the Speaker or the Chairman shall order the bells to be rung and shall then direct the Clerk to call the roll when he is satisfied that all Members wishing to vote are in their seats, provided that the bells shall be rung for a reasonable length of time and in no event for longer than one hour. 1980 R. 38(4); am. 1996.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE HOUSE

Absence of Chairman of Committees, appointment of replacement

39 (1) In the absence of the Chairman of Committees and the Deputy Speaker, the Speaker shall, when the House is to resolve itself into a Committee, before he leaves the Chair appoint a Member to be Chairman of the Committee. 1955 R. 36(3) am.; 1980 R. 39(1); am. 1996.

Member may take Chair at request of Chairman of Committees

(2) When the House is in committee any Member may, at the request of the Chairman, take the Chair during any absence of the Chairman. 1955 R. 36(4) am.; 1980 R. 39(2).

Rules in CWH

40 (1) The Rules of the House shall be observed in the Committee of the Whole House so far as may be applicable, except the Rules limiting the number of times of speaking. 1955 R. 37(1) am.; 1980 R. 40(1).

Relevancy in debate in CWH

(2) Speeches in Committee of the Whole must be strictly relevant to the item or clause under consideration. 1955 R. 37(2) am.; 1980 R. 40(2).

Powers of Chairman of CWH

(3) The Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House shall maintain order in the Committee, deciding all questions of order subject to an appeal to the Speaker; but disorder in a Committee may only be censured by the House, on receiving a report thereof. No debate shall be permitted on any decision. 1955 R. 37(3) am.; 1980 R. 40(3); am. 1996.

Termination or suspension of CWH proceedings

41 In a Committee of the Whole House a motion that the Chairman leave the Chair shall always be in order and take precedence over every other motion; and the question shall be decided without amendment or debate provided that, in the case of disorder or an apparent breach of privilege ensuing in the Committee, the Chairman may suspend the proceedings of the Committee and report the circumstances to the House without motion being made. 1955 R. 38 am.; 1980 R. 41.

ADJOURNMENT

Adjournment motion, general

42 A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, but no second motion to the same effect shall be made until after some intermediate proceedings have been had. 1955 R. 39 am.; 1980 R. 42.

EMERGENCY DEBATE

Adjournment for urgent debate

43 (1) Immediately after the daily routine of business has been concluded, a Member may ask leave to move that the business of the House be set aside for the purpose of discussing a definite matter of urgent public importance; and in asking for such leave he may state briefly his reasons for so doing. 1955 R. 40 am.; 1980 R. 43(1).

Notice of intention to move

(2) A Member wishing to move, “That the business of the House be set aside for the purpose of discussing a matter of urgent public importance”, under the provisions of this Rule shall give to the Speaker, at least two hours prior to the opening of a sitting, a written statement of the matter proposed to be discussed. If the urgent matter is not then known, the Member shall give his written statement to the Speaker as soon as practicable. 1955 R. 40 am.; 1980 R. 43(2); am. 1996.

Form of motion

(3) When requesting leave to propose such a motion, the Member shall rise in his place and present the written statement referred to in paragraph (2) of this Rule. 1955 R. 40 am.; 1980 R. 43(3).

Speaker’s ruling

(4) The Speaker shall decide, without any debate, whether or not the matter is proper to be discussed and, in considering whether the matter is proper to be discussed, the Speaker may have regard to whether adequate notice has been given pursuant to paragraph (2). 1955 R. 40 am.; 1980 R. 43(4); am. 1996.

Factors to be considered

(4A) In determining whether a matter should have urgent consideration, the Speaker shall, without debate, have regard to the extent to which it concerns the administrative responsibilities of the government or could come within the scope of ministerial action and the Speaker also shall have regard to the probability of the matter being debated by the House within a reasonable time by other means. 1993 R. 43(4A).

Deferral of ruling

(5) If the Speaker so desires, he may defer his decision upon whether the matter is proper to be discussed until later in the sitting, when he may interrupt the proceedings of the House for the purpose of announcing his decision. 1955 R. 40 am.; 1980 R. 43(5); am. 1996.

Reasons for ruling

(6) In stating whether or not he is satisfied that the matter is proper to be discussed, the Speaker is not bound to give reasons for his decision. 1955 R. 40 am.; 1980 R. 43(6); am. 1996.

Grant of leave for motion

(7) If the Speaker is satisfied that the matter is proper to be discussed, he shall read the motion aloud and ask whether the Member has the leave of the House. If objection is taken, the Speaker shall request those Members who support the motion to arise in their places and if more than ten Members rise accordingly, the Speaker shall call upon the Member who has asked for leave. 1955 R. 40 am.; 1980 R. 43(7); am. 1996.

Question to House for leave

(8) If ten or fewer but not fewer than three Members rise in their places, the question whether the Member has leave to make the motion shall be put forthwith without debate and determined, if necessary, by a division. 1955 R. 40 am.; 1980 R. 43(8); am. 2014.

Necessity of leave

(9) Except with the requisite leave or support, the motion cannot be made. 1955 R. 40 am.; 1980 R. 43(9).

Restrictions on motion

(10) The right to make the motion under this Rule is subject to the following restrictions:

- (a) the matter proposed for discussion must relate to a genuine emergency, calling for immediate and urgent consideration;

(b) not more than one such motion can be made at the same sitting;

(c) not more than one matter can be discussed on the same motion;

(d) the motion must not revive discussion on a matter which has been discussed in the same session;

(e) the motion must not raise a question of privilege;

(f) the discussion under the motion must not raise any question which, according to the Rules of the House, can only be debated on a distinct motion under notice. 1955 R. 40 am.; 1980 R. 43(10); am. 1993.

Motion put over

(11) If the Speaker is satisfied that the matter is proper to be discussed, the motion shall be put over, on a Tuesday, a Thursday or a Friday to the time of adjournment and, on a Wednesday to the moment of interruption and where the matter is put over to the moment of interruption debate shall be held on the matter in place of any debate that would otherwise occur at the moment of interruption, unless the House is in extended hours, in which case the debate shall be held at the time of adjournment. 1993 R. 43(11); am. 2014.

Quorum not required

(12) The quorum requirements provided for in these Rules do not apply. 1993 R.43(12).

Limit on Member speaking

(13) No Member shall speak longer than fifteen minutes during debate on any such motion. 1993 R.43(13).

Limit on debate

(14) A debate arising pursuant to this Rule shall not be for more than two hours and, upon termination of that two hours, no question shall be put. 1993 R. 43(14).

PROCEEDINGS ON BILLS

Introduction of Bill

44 (1) Every Bill shall be introduced upon motion for leave, and may be introduced without notice, specifying the title of the Bill which motion shall be decided without amendment or debate, and shall be ordered to be read a second time on a future day, unless the House orders that it be read forthwith and to be printed without question put. 1955 R. 41(1) am.; 1980 R. 44(1).

Imperfect Bill

(2) No Bill, except the Pro Forma Bill at the opening of the Session, may be introduced either in blank or in an imperfect shape. 1955 R. 41(2) am.; 1980 R. 44(2).

Second reading

45 Except by unanimous consent of the House, no Bill shall be read the second time unless it has been printed and distributed to the Members and has been subsequently marked on the Orders of the Day thus "Printed" (signifying that it has been printed and distributed). 1955 R. 42; 1980 R. 45.

Referral after second reading

46 When a Bill, other than a Bill for an Appropriations Act, has been read a second time, it shall, unless the House otherwise orders, stand referred to either the Law Amendments Committee or the Private and Local Bills Committee, as the Speaker shall direct, without question put. 1980 R. 46; am. 1983; am. 1996.

Report of Committee

47 (1) When a Bill has been considered by a Committee of the House, the Chairman of the Committee, or another Member of the Committee on his behalf, shall, standing in his place, report the Bill from the Committee to the House, with or without amendments. 1955 R. 49 am.; 1980 R. 47(1).

Committal to CWH

(2) A Bill that has second reading reported from a Committee shall, unless the House otherwise orders, stand committed to a Committee of the Whole House without question put. 1980 R. 47(2).

Report of amendments in CWH

(3) When a Bill is considered in a Committee of the Whole House, any amendment recommended by a Committee shall be reported by the Clerk of the House to the Committee and shall be deemed, unless the Committee otherwise orders, to have been agreed to by that Committee without question put. 1980 R. 47(3).

Certification by Committee Chairman

48 The Chairman of the Committee to which a Bill has been referred shall sign with his name at length a printed copy of the Bill, on which the amendments are fairly written. 1955 R. 51 am.; 1980 R. 48.

Reprinting of amended Bill

49 When a Bill has been amended in Committee of the Whole House it may, in the discretion of the Committee, be reprinted as amended or the Committee may print or otherwise reproduce copies of any substantial amendments; when the Bill has been sent to be reprinted it shall be marked on the Orders of the Day thus - "Not reprinted" - and shall not be further proceeded with until that mark has been removed and the word "Printed" substituted, signifying that the Bill has been reprinted and distributed. 1955 R. 43; 1980 R. 49.

Order for third reading

50 When a Bill is reported from a Committee of the Whole House, with or without amendments, it shall be ordered without question put to be read a third time on a future day unless the House orders that it be read forthwith. 1955 R. 48 (part) am.; 1980 R. 50.

Recommittal of Bill

51 When the Order of the Day for the third reading of any Bill is read, any Member desiring to recommit the same must move to discharge the Order and to recommit the Bill and, upon such motion being resolved in the affirmative, the Member shall give notice of the instructions proposed to be given, if any. 1955 R. 50; 1980 R. 51.

Amendment of Private or Local Bill on third reading

52 No amendment, other than a purely verbal amendment which does not affect the sense of a clause, shall be proposed on the third reading of a Private or Local Bill unless written notice of that amendment has been given to the Clerk of the House before the rising of the House at the previous sitting, which notice shall be published with the Orders of the Day. 1955 R. 60 am.; 1980 R. 52.

Three separate readings of Bills

53 Every Bill shall receive three several readings on different days previously to being passed. On urgent or extraordinary occasions a Bill may be read twice or thrice or advanced two or three stages in one day. 1955 R. 44; 1980 R. 53.

Block moving of Private and Local Bills

54 Notwithstanding anything contained in these Rules, unopposed Private and Local Bills may be moved through any or all stages in block. 1980 R. 54.

Certification of readings of Bills

55 When a Bill is read in the House, the Clerk shall certify upon it the readings and the time thereof. After it has passed, he shall certify the same with the date at the foot of the Bill. 1955 R. 45; 1980 R. 55.

Readings before committal or amendment

56 Every Bill shall be read twice in the House before committal or amendment. 1955 R. 46; 1980 R. 56.

Proceedings in CWH on Bills

57 (1) In any proceedings in Committee of the Whole House upon Bills, the preamble is first postponed and then every clause considered by the Committee in its proper order; the preamble and title to be last considered. 1955 R. 47; 1980 R. 57; am. 1995.

Maximum time for consideration of Bill

(2) After a Bill is reported by a Committee of the House, a maximum of twenty hours is allowed for consideration of the Bill by the Committee of the Whole House on Bills. 1995 R. 57(2).

Motion on Bill

(3) Upon the conclusion by the Committee of the Whole House on Bills of its consideration of a Bill, the Chair of the Committee of the Whole House on Bills shall put the question, without amendment or debate, "Shall the Bill carry?", which question, when carried, shall carry every clause, the preamble and the title of the Bill, as amended by any Committee of the House and the Committee of the Whole House on Bills, and the Chair shall thereupon report to the House. 1995 R. 57(3).

Report of CWH on Bills

58 All amendments made in Committee are reported by the Chairman to the House, which shall receive the same forthwith. After report, the Bill is forthwith ordered to be read a third time at such time as may be appointed by the House. 1955 R. 48; 1980 R. 58; am. 1995.

Reports from Committees

59 Reports from Standing and Special Committees may be made by Members standing in their places. 1955 R. 49; 1980 R. 59.

COMMITTEES

Striking Committee

60 (1) At the commencement of the first Session of each Assembly, a Special Committee, consisting of five Members, shall be appointed, whose duty it shall be to prepare and report with all convenient speed, listings of Members to compose the Standing Committees of the House for each Assembly, for the following purposes:

1. Internal Affairs;
2. Law Amendments;
3. Private and Local Bills;
4. Public Accounts;
5. Economic Development;
6. Human Resources;
7. Community Services;
8. Resources;
9. Veterans Affairs.

1987 R. 60(1); am. 1993.

Functions of Standing Committees

(2) For greater certainty,

(a) the Internal Affairs Committee is established for the purpose of considering rules, privileges, procedures, matters relative to the Legislative Library and Members' amenities and like matters;

(b) the Public Accounts Committee is established for the purpose of reviewing the public accounts, the annual report or other report of the Auditor General and any other financial matters respecting the public funds of the Province;

(ba) the Economic Development Committee is established for the purpose of considering matters normally assigned to or within the purview of the Nova Scotia Economic Renewal Agency and the Minister responsible for the Agency and the Department and Minister of Transportation and Public Works and matters relating to the Technology and Science Secretariat;

(c) the Human Resources Committee is established for the purpose of

(i) considering matters normally assigned to or within the purview of the Departments and Ministers of Education and Culture and of Labour,

(ii) reviewing and approving or not approving candidates for appointment to agencies, boards or commissions where the Governor in Council has, pursuant to an enactment, the sole discretion to make the appointment or where the Governor in Council makes the appointment by choosing from a list of nominees provided to the Governor in Council pursuant to an enactment,

(iii) reviewing and approving or not approving ministerial appointees to agencies, boards or commissions where, pursuant to an enactment, Governor in Council approval is not required, and

(iv) for purposes of greater clarity and certainty, the Committee shall be guided by the terms of reference set out herein and which form part of this Rule;

Terms of Reference in Reviewing Agency, Board and Commission Appointments:

1. Where Governor in Council approval is required for an appointment to an Agency, Board or Commission, after consideration by Executive Council of a person recommended for appointment to an Agency, Board or Commission, the Clerk of the Executive Council shall submit the name of the person to the Human Resources Committee, on Form "A" (attached).
2. Prior to making a Ministerial appointment to an Agency, Board or Commission for which Governor in Council approval is not required, a Minister shall submit the name of the proposed appointee to the Executive Council for consideration. Where the Executive Council recommends the name, the Clerk of the Executive Council shall submit the name of the person to the Human Resources Committee.

3. Committee members shall review the name submitted for approval having regard to qualifications of the individual, affirmative action concerns and, where relevant, the regional representativeness of the Agency, Board or Commission.
4. The purpose of the Committee review is not to replace the function of Government Departments and Ministers in making appointments. Its function is to approve or not approve of the name before it, not to consider or recommend alternative names for appointments.
5. The following appointments shall not be submitted to the Human Resources Committee for review:
 - (a) appointments of provincial public or civil servants by virtue of their employment (i.e. the Deputy Minister of Finance is an unpaid member of the Lotteries Commission);*
 - (b) candidates selected by an open competition and selection process or peer review (i.e. Provincial Judges selected by the Judicial Appointments Committee or employees of Agencies, Boards or Commissions);*

(c) candidates recommended for appointment to self-regulatory bodies who are elected or recommended by the body (i.e. Nova Scotia Medical Society);

(d) candidates recommended for appointment to Hospitals and Universities where the candidate is recommended by the Board of Governors or Directors of the Institution.

6. The Committee may interview a recommended candidate where a majority of members support a motion to interview a particular recommended candidate.
7. The Committee shall not hear submissions or representations from anyone not a member of the Committee.
8. Meetings of the Committee shall be open to the public unless the Committee by majority vote determines to meet in camera.
9. The Committee shall meet at least once a month every month of the year irrespective of whether the House of Assembly has been prorogued.
10. The committee shall approve or not approve recommended candidates on the basis of a simple majority.

- 11. The Committee shall make recommendations with respect to every name submitted by Executive Council on the day it appears on the agenda unless a majority of members agree to defer a recommendation to the next meeting.
- 12. Recommendations of the Committee shall be accepted by the Executive Council and the Minister responsible for the appointment.
- 13. The agenda for meetings and a list of recommended candidates and Form "A" will be provided to all members one week in advance.
