Electoral History for Halifax Atlantic

Halifax Atlantic

In 1966, the electoral district Halifax County South was created through an amendment to the House of Assembly Act. (SNS 1966, c. 34) and was subsequently renamed Halifax Atlantic in an amendment to the House of Assembly Act in 1967 (SNS 1967, c. 46).

In 2013, following the recommendations of the 2012 Electoral Boundaries Commission report, this district gained a small number of streets in the Williamswood and Harrietsfield areas from Timberlea-Prospect. It lost the area east of Herring Cove Road and north of the Frog Pond Park to Halifax Fairview.

Electoral History for Timberlea-Prospect

Timberlea-Prospect

Upon the recommendations of the 1992 Electoral Boundaries Commission report, Halifax St. Margaret's was renamed Timberlea-Prospect. It lost the St. Margaret's Bay area to the new Chester-St. Margaret's district. It lost the Hammonds Plains/Lucasville/Pockwock Road area to the new Sackville-Beaver Bank district. It lost the Bedford area to the new Bedford-Fall River district.

In 2003, it lost the Bayside and West Dover areas to Chester-St. Margaret's (SNS 2002, c. 34).

In 2013, on the recommendations of the 2012 Electoral Boundaries Commission, this district lost the Stillwater Lake area to Hammonds Plains-Lucasville and a small number of streets in the Williamswood and Harrietsfield areas to Halifax Atlantic. It gained the Susies Lake and Quarrie Lake areas from Halifax-Clayton Park.
