Electoral History for Dartmouth East

Dartmouth East

In 1978, the House of Assembly Act was amended to provide for an increase in representation of six members. Dartmouth East was created.

In 2003, Dartmouth East lost a northern area to Waverley-Fall River and gained an area in Woodlawn (SNS 2002 c. 34).

In 2013, following the recommendations of the Electoral Boundaries Commission report, this district gained the Portobello area from Waverley-Fall River-Beaver Bank and lost a small area east of Bell Lake to Cole Harbour-Portland Valley as well as losing the area north of Main Street and east of Caledonia Road until Geovex Court to Preston-Dartmouth.
