Electoral History for Hants East

Hants East

Chapter 47 of the 1948 Statutes of Nova Scotia divided the County of Hants into two electoral districts: Hants East, which consisted of that portion of the County of Hants contained in the Municipality of East Hants; and Hants West, which consisted of that portion of the County of Hants contained in the Municipality of West Hants.

In 2021, Hants East lost Lakelands to Hants West, and Mount Uniacke and South Uniacke to Sackville Uniacke.

Electoral History for Colchester-Musquodoboit Valley

Colchester-Musquodoboit Valley

Following the recommendations of the 1992 Electoral Boundaries Commission report, the name of Colchester South was changed to Colchester-Musquodoboit Valley. At the same time, the boundaries were redrawn to encompass the Musquodoboit Valley area, formerly part of the Bedford-Musquodoboit Valley district, and the Millbrook Reserve, formerly part of the Truro-Bible Hill district. As well, the Salmon River area was moved out of the district.

In 2021, the district gained Meagher's Grant from Eastern Shore and areas from Preston-Dartmouth.
