1 Section 2 of Chapter 340 of the Revised Statutes, 1989, the Pension Benefits Act, as amended by Chapter 29 of the Acts of 2000 and Chapter 21 of the Acts of 2002, is further amended by adding immediately after clause (ae) the following clauses:

(aea) “phased retirement benefit” means a pension benefit that is equal to a portion of the pension to which a person is entitled under subsection (1) of Section 41 or that the person is eligible to receive under subsection (1) of Section 49;

(aeb) “phased retirement period” means the period in respect of which a phased retirement benefit is to be paid;

2 Chapter 340 is further amended by adding immediately after Section 49 the following Section:

49A (1) A pension plan may provide for the payment of a phased retirement benefit.

(b) where the person was receiving a joint and survivor pension from the pension plan before the phased retirement period, the person’s spouse or common-law partner, who would receive that joint and survivor pension on the death of the person, consents in writing to the cessation of the payment of the joint and survivor pension;

(c) the employer provides a copy of the agreement referred to in clause (a) to the administrator of the pension plan;

(d) the person accrues a pension benefit during the phased retirement period under circumstances to which subsection 8503(19) of the Income Tax Regulations (Canada) applies; and

(e) Section 52 does not apply to the phased retirement benefit; and

(f) where, before the phased retirement period, a person was receiving a pension from the pension plan, the administrator of the pension plan shall not pay that pension and an election made under Section 54 is void.
