(2) Where the judge, on application by the Chief Electoral Officer under subsection (1), is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a person has committed, is about to commit or is likely to commit an act or omission that is contrary to this Act, and that the nature and seriousness of the act or omission, the need to ensure fairness of the electoral process and the public interest justify the issuing of an injunction, the judge may issue an injunction ordering any person named in the application to do one or both of the following:

- (a) refrain from committing any act that it appears to the judge is contrary to this Act; and
- (b) do any act that it appears to the judge is required by this Act.

Frivolous or vexatious allegation

293 (1) Where the Chief Electoral Officer determines that an allegation of a contravention of this Act is frivolous or vexatious, the Chief Electoral Officer shall dismiss the matter and may refer the matter to the Director of Public Prosecutions who, subject to this Act, shall determine whether to commence a prosecution.

(2) The Chief Electoral Officer shall publish on a public website and by any other means the Chief Electoral Officer considers appropriate a summary of each allegation the Chief Electoral Officer determines to be frivolous or vexatious, and any order made by the Chief Electoral Officer pursuant to subsection (1), including the name of the person against whom the order was made but not the person's residential address or residential telephone number. 2011, c. 5, s. 293.

(2) Subject to subsection 295(2), the Chief Electoral Officer may enter into a compliance agreement, for the purpose of ensuring compliance with this Act, with a person whom the Chief Electoral Officer believes on reasonable grounds has committed, is about to commit or is likely to commit an act or omission that could constitute an offence under this Act.

Involvement of Director of Public Prosecutions

(2) Where a matter has already been referred to the Director of Public Prosecutions, whether or not a prosecution has been initiated, the Director may remit the matter back to the Chief Electoral Officer if, after consultation with the Chief Electoral Officer, the Director considers that a compliance agreement would better serve the public interest.

(3) Where a compliance agreement is entered into, any prosecution of the contracting party for an act or omission that led to it is stayed and, unless the contracting party breaches the compliance agreement, the Director of Public Prosecutions may not resume the prosecution.

(4) The Chief Electoral Officer and the contracting party may renegotiate the terms of the compliance agreement at the request of the Chief Electoral Officer or contracting party at any time before it is fully executed.

(5) The Chief Electoral Officer shall provide the contracting party with a copy of a compliance agreement, immediately after it is entered into or renegotiated.

(2) Where the matter has been referred to the Director of Public Prosecutions, the Chief Electoral Officer shall also provide a copy of the notice to the Director.

(3) Service of the notice terminates any prosecution of the contracting party that is based on the act or omission in question and prevents the Chief

Electoral Officer from referring the matter to the Director of Public Prosecutions and the Director from instituting such a prosecution. 2011, c. 5, s. 296.

Breach

297 (1) Where the Chief Electoral Officer is of the opinion that a contracting party has breached a compliance agreement, the Chief Electoral Officer shall serve a notice of default on the contracting party, informing the contracting party that the Chief Electoral Officer may refer the matter to the Director of Public Prosecutions for any action the Director considers appropriate or, where a prosecution was stayed by virtue of subsection 295(3), it may be resumed.

(2) Where the matter has been referred to the Director of Public Prosecutions, the Chief Electoral Officer shall also provide a copy of the notice of default to the Director. 2011, c. 5, s. 297.

Court may dismiss proceedings

298 A court shall dismiss proceedings against a contracting party in relation to the subject matter of a compliance agreement if it is satisfied on a balance of probabilities that the contracting party has not breached the compliance agreement or, in the case of partial compliance and taking into account the contracting party's performance with respect to the agreement, it is of the opinion that the continuation of proceedings would be unfair. 2011, c. 5, s. 298.

Publication of notice of non-compliance and publication of notice of agreement

299 (1) The Chief Electoral Officer may publish by any means that the Chief Electoral Officer has issued a notice of non-compliance.
