Short title
1 This Act may be cited as the Public Service Act. R.S., c. 376, s. 1.

Departments
2 For the administration of the public affairs of the Province, there are the following departments:

(a) the Department of Agriculture;
(b) the Department of Communities, Culture and Heritage;
(c) the Department of Community Services;
(d) the Department of Economic and Rural Development and Tourism;
(e) the Department of Education and Early Childhood Development;
(f) the Department of Energy;
(g) the Department of Environment;
(h) the Department of Finance and Treasury Board;
(i) the Department of Fisheries and Aquaculture;
(j) the Department of Health and Wellness;
(k) the Department of Intergovernmental Affairs;
(l) the Department of Internal Services;
(m) the Department of Justice;
(n) the Department of Labour and Advanced Education;
(o) the Department of Municipal Affairs;
(p) the Department of Natural Resources;
(q) the Department of Seniors;
(r) the Department of Transportation and Infrastructure Renewal.

Department name change
2A The Governor in Council may change the name of any department, office or committee established under this Act. 1996, c. 8, s. 3; 2009, c. 14, s. 5.

Creation of other department
3 (1) The Governor in Council may create other departments, not exceeding two in number, and may prescribe the name by which each of such departments is to be designated.
(2) Each of such departments shall be presided over by a member of the Executive Council, who shall be appointed for the purpose, under the Great Seal, by the Lieutenant Governor.

(3) The Governor in Council may, from time to time, prescribe the functions, powers and duties of each of the members of the Executive Council appointed under this Section and the duties of the department over which the member presides.

(4) repealed 2001, c. 4, s. 39.

R.S., c. 376, s. 3; 2001, c. 4, s. 39; 2013, c. 37, s. 4.

Assignment to minister or department

4 (1) The Governor in Council may, from time to time, assign to any department or a member of the Executive Council such affairs and matters as the Governor in Council deems expedient, whether the same have or have not been theretofore assigned or whether such affairs and matters have or have not theretofore belonged by or under this Act or any other Act of the Legislature or otherwise to some other department or office or to some other member of the Executive Council, and, if an affair or matter is assigned to a member of the Executive Council, the Governor in Council may direct that the affair or matter for administrative purposes be attached to such department of the public service as the Governor in Council may designate.

(2) Whenever any affairs or matters are assigned as aforesaid to any department, or to a member of the Executive Council, and such affairs or matters have theretofore been assigned or have theretofore belonged to some other department or office or to some other member of the Executive Council, then any reference in any Act of the Legislature or in any rule, order, regulation, by-law or ordinance or in any document whatsoever to such other department or office, or to the head of such other department or office, or such other member of the Executive Council, whether such reference is by official name or otherwise, shall as regards any subsequent transaction, matter or thing relating to the affairs or matters or any of them assigned as aforesaid to such first-mentioned department or office, or to such first-mentioned member of the Executive Council, be held and construed to be a reference to such first-mentioned department or office and to the head thereof or to such first-mentioned member of the Executive Council.

(3) Notwithstanding any enactment, where an affair or matter is assigned pursuant to subsection (1) or an affair or matter is assigned to a department or office or a member of the Executive Council pursuant to this Act or any other enactment, any amount appropriated by the Legislature with respect to that affair or matter may be assigned to the appropriate department or office or member of the Executive Council.

R.S., c. 376, s. 4; 1998, c. 13, s. 13; 2001, c. 4, s. 40.
Abolition of department

4A Where the Governor in Council assigns all affairs and matters theretofore assigned or belonging to a department to another department or to a member of the Executive Council, other than the member of the Executive Council theretofore presiding over the department, and no new affairs or matters are thereupon assigned to the department, the Governor in Council may abolish the department. 1996, c. 8, s. 4.

Offices of public service

4B (1) The Governor in Council may create offices of the public service and may, from time to time, prescribe the name by which each of such offices is to be designated.

(2) Each of such offices shall be presided over by a member of the Executive Council who shall be appointed for the purpose, under the Great Seal, by the Governor in Council.

(3) The Governor in Council may, from time to time, prescribe the functions, powers and duties of each of the members of the Executive Council appointed under this Section and the duties of the office over which the member presides.

(4) The Governor in Council may, from time to time, appoint a person to be the chief executive officer of any such office, who shall be paid such salary as the Governor in Council determines and shall perform such duties as are, from time to time, prescribed by the Governor in Council. 2001, c. 4, s. 41.

Assignment to office

4C (1) The Governor in Council may, from time to time, assign to any office or a member of the Executive Council such affairs and matters as the Governor in Council deems expedient, whether the same have or have not been theretofore assigned or whether such affairs and matters have or have not theretofore belonged by or under this Act or any other Act of the Legislature or otherwise to some other office, some department or to some other member of the Executive Council and, where an affair or matter is assigned to a member of the Executive Council, the Governor in Council may direct that the affair or matter for administrative purposes be attached to such office or department of the public service as the Governor in Council may designate.

(2) Whenever any affairs or matters are assigned as aforesaid to any office or to a member of the Executive Council, and such affairs or matters have theretofore been assigned or have theretofore belonged to some other office, to some department or to some other member of the Executive Council, then any reference in any Act of the Legislature or in any rule, order, regulation, by-law or ordinance or in any document whatsoever to such other office or department, or to the head of such other office or department, or such other member of the Executive Council, whether such reference is by official name or otherwise shall, as regards any subsequent transaction, matter or thing relating to the affairs or matters or any of them assigned as aforesaid to such first-mentioned office or department, or to such first-mentioned member of the Executive Council, be held and construed to be a reference to such first-mentioned office or department and to the head thereof or to such first-mentioned member of the Executive Council.

(3) Notwithstanding any enactment, where an affair or matter is assigned pursuant to subsection (1) or an affair or matter is assigned to an office or a member of the Executive Council pursuant to this Act or any other enactment, any amount appropriated by the Legislature with respect to that affair or matter may be assigned to the appropriate office or member of the Executive Council. 2001, c. 4,
s. 41.

Abolition of office

4D Where the Governor in Council assigned all affairs and matters there-tofore assigned or belonging to an office to another office or department, or to a member of the Executive Council, other than the member of the Executive Council therefore presiding over the office, and no new affairs or matters are thereupon assigned to the office, the Governor in Council may abolish the office. 2001, c. 4,
s. 41.

Acting minister

5 (1) The Governor in Council may designate any member of the Executive Council as an acting minister and any act done by an acting minister has the same force, validity and effect as if done by the member of the Executive Council in whose stead the member is acting.

(2) A designation made pursuant to subsection (1) may be made retroactive to the time when the acting minister began to act in the stead of the member of the Executive Council. 2001, c. 4, s. 42; 2004, c. 6, s. 30.

Agreements

6 A member of the Executive Council may, subject to the approval of the Governor in Council, enter into an agreement with the Government of Canada, the government of a province, the government of a foreign state or subnational unit or an association of foreign states or subnational units, or agency thereof, or with any institution or person, or any of them, providing for a joint undertaking with the Government of Canada, with the government of a province, with the government of a foreign state or subnational unit or with an association of foreign states or subnational units, or any agency thereof, or with any institution or person, or any of them, of any project within the member’s mandate under this Act. 2001, c. 4, s. 42; 2003, c. 7,
s. 5.

Appointment of deputy minister

7 The Governor in Council may appoint a person to be a deputy minister who shall be paid such salary as the Governor in Council determines and shall perform such duties as are, from time to time, prescribed by the Governor in Council. 2009, c. 14, s. 6.
Restriction on pay for performance

7A    Notwithstanding Section 7, where, in any fiscal year, the Public Accounts laid before the House of Assembly or filed with the Clerk of the House pursuant to Section 59 of the Finance Act disclose a deficit, no deputy minister or senior official eligible for pay for performance pursuant to any pay for performance for senior officials policy established by Treasury and Policy Board shall receive such pay for performance in that fiscal year. 2004, c. 3, s. 39; 2009, c 14, s. 7; 2010, c. 2, s. 141; 2013, c. 37, s. 5.

Head of Public Service

8    The Governor in Council may designate a deputy minister to be the head of the Public Service. 2001, c. 4, s. 42.

Treasury and Policy Board

9 (1) There shall be a committee of the Executive Council called the Treasury and Policy Board.

(2) The Treasury and Policy Board is composed of a chair and not fewer than four other members of the Executive Council as are designated from time to time by the Governor in Council.

(3) The Governor in Council may designate other members of the Executive Council to serve as substitutes in the absence of members of the Treasury and Policy Board.

(4) The Governor in Council may, from time to time, designate persons in the public service of the Province to be officers of the Treasury and Policy Board.

(5) The Treasury and Policy Board may determine its own rules and procedures. 2009, c. 14, s. 8; 2013, c. 37, s. 6.

Powers of Treasury and Policy Board

10 (1) In this Section and Sections 12, 14, 14H and 15, “government agency” means

(a) a government business enterprise or governmental unit, other than the General Revenue Fund of the Province, categorized pursuant to the Finance Act, and

(b) repealed 2010, c. 2, s. 142.

(2) The Treasury and Policy Board is charged to establish plans and policies for the operation of the Government of the Province, ensuring that the plans and policies are developed and implemented in a co-ordinated and fiscally responsible manner, and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, is charged with all matters relating to
(a) the development and implementation of policies, plans and strategies for the effective administration and operation of government;

(aa) the identification and prioritization of policy issues, selection of policy initiatives and direction of action on policy issues and initiatives;

(ab) the establishment of labour negotiation mandates;

(ac) the establishment of reporting requirements to ensure the full accountability of departments, offices and government agencies;

(ad) ensuring that decisions respecting any Provincial investment align with the economic development strategies and priorities of the Government of the Province;

(ae) ensuring alignment between the fiscal and policy agendas of the Government of the Province;

#af) the review and analysis of business plans of departments, offices and government agencies and approval of the allocation of financial and other resources to those departments, offices and government agencies;

(b) the establishment of values, standards, publicly-published policies, results and targets for the administration, operation, management and accountability of government, including areas related to human resources and information technology;

(c) making recommendations to the Executive Council on the broad structure and allocation of responsibilities to individual government departments, offices and government agencies, and approval of structures and functions within those departments and agencies;

(d) the examination and reporting to the Executive Council on all matters related to the financial management, commitment of funds, and expenditure of funds provided by the Province to departments, offices and government agencies;

(e) the examination, reporting and direction on matters relating to the development, recommendation and execution of policies, programs and plans respecting the management of the internal operations of the Government of the Province, including administrative, expenditure, human resource and information technology policies;

(f) the establishment of policies, procedures and processes related to the commitment and expenditure of all monies provided by the Province, whether provided to departments or offices, as a public service vote, or to government agencies;
(g) the establishment of reporting requirements to ensure the full reporting and accountability of departments, offices and government agencies for the allocation of and results obtained by the use of, financial, human, information technology and capital resources;

(h) taking any action deemed appropriate to ensure the ongoing governance and operation of departments, offices or government agencies is in compliance with this Act. 2009, c. 14, s. 8; 2010, c. 2, s. 142; 2013, c. 37, s. 7.

11, 12 and 12A repealed 2013, c. 37, s. 8.

Regulations

13 Subject to the approval of the Governor in Council, the Treasury and Policy Board may make such rules and regulations as are deemed necessary to enable it to discharge its responsibilities under this Act. 2009, c. 14, s. 8; 2011, c. 40, s. 10; 2013, c. 37, s. 9.

Board may demand information

14 The Treasury and Policy Board may require from a public servant, an employee of a government agency or an agent of Her Majesty in right of the Province any account, return, statement, document, report or information that is directly related to the operations, undertakings and plans of the agency or agent and that the Treasury and Policy Board considers necessary for the performance of its duties. 2009, c. 14, s. 8; 2011, c. 40, s. 11; 2013, c. 37, s. 10.

Board may issue directives

14A The Treasury and Policy Board may issue such administrative directives as it considers necessary for the performance of its duties. 2009, c. 14, s. 8; 2011, c. 40, s. 12; 2013, c. 37, s. 11.

Regulations

14B Subject to the approval of the Governor in Council, the Treasury and Policy Board may make such rules and regulations as are deemed necessary for the more efficient administration of the public service. 2009, c. 14, s. 8; 2013, c. 37, s. 12.

14C and 14D repealed 2013, c. 37, s. 13.

Office of Planning and Priorities

14E (1) There shall be an Office of Planning and Priorities.

(2) The Office of Planning and Priorities shall be presided over by the Minister of Planning and Priorities who has the supervision, direction and control of all affairs and matters relating to the Office and who shall supervise the performance of the functions of the Office.
(3) The Governor in Council may appoint a person to be the Deputy Minister of the Office of Planning and Priorities who shall be paid such salary as the Governor in Council determines and who shall perform such duties as are from time to time prescribed by the Governor in Council.

(4) Such other officers and employees as are required for the purposes of the Office of Planning and Priorities may be appointed pursuant to the Civil Service Act and that Act applies to those officers and employees. 2009, c. 14, s. 8; 2013, c. 37, s. 14.

Objects of Office
14F The objects and purposes of the Office of Planning and Priorities are to support the Executive Council and its committees in advancing the policy agenda of the Government of the Province. 2013, c. 37, s. 15.

14G and 14H repealed 2014, c. 34, s. 40.

Contracts
15 (1) The Governor in Council may make regulations respecting the conditions under which contracts may be entered into by a department, office or government agency and, notwithstanding any other enactment, may

(a) direct that no contract, by the terms of which payments are required in excess of such amount or amounts as the Governor in Council may prescribe, be entered into or have any force or effect unless entry into the contract has been approved by the Governor in Council or the Treasury and Policy Board;

(b) make regulations respecting the security to be given to and in the name of Her Majesty in right of the Province to secure the due performance of contracts.

(2) Notwithstanding any other enactment, where a department, office or government agency, to or for the benefit of which the Legislature or the Governor in Council has appropriated money, wishes to engage the services of a person by contract, such contracts have no legal force or effect unless the terms and conditions thereof are in accordance with the regulations made by the Governor in Council or are approved either by the Governor in Council or the Treasury and Policy Board. 2001, c. 4, s. 42; 2009, c. 14, s. 9; 2013, c. 37, s. 16.

Designation of special operating agency
16 (1) The Governor in Council may

(a) designate by regulation a department, office, division, branch or program as a special operating agency; and

(b) establish an operating charter for a special operating agency designated under clause (a), containing the objects of the special operating agency, and terms, conditions and other provisions governing its operations.

(2) The Regulations Act does not apply to the establishment of an operating charter for a special operating agency under clause 1(b).

(3) The operating charter of a special operating agency may be amended from time to time by the Governor in Council. 2001, c. 4, s. 42; 2009, c. 14, s. 10.

Interpretation of Sections 17A to 17I

17 In Sections 17A to 17I, and for the purpose of those Sections only,

(a) “Minister” means the Minister of the Public Service Commission;

(b) “public service” includes
(i) the Civil Service,
(ii) employees employed pursuant to the Corrections Act,
(iii) employees employed pursuant to the Highway Workers Collective Bargaining Act,
(iv) repealed 2003, c. 4, s. 26.

and

(v) members, officers and employees of any government business enterprise or governmental unit designated pursuant to the Finance Act that the Governor in Council, by order, determines to be part of the public service. 2001, c. 4, s. 42; 2003, c. 4, s. 26; 2006, c. 2, s. 43; 2010, c. 2, s. 143.

Public Service Commission

17A (1) There shall be a Public Service Commission consisting of the Public Service Commissioner.

(2) The Public Service Commission shall be presided over by the Minister of the Public Service Commission.

(3) The Governor in Council may appoint a person to be the Public Service Commissioner who shall have the status of a deputy head under the Civil Service Act, be paid such salary as the Governor in Council determines and perform such duties as are from time to time prescribed by the Governor in Council.

(4) The Public Service Commissioner is an employee within the meaning of the Public Service Superannuation Act.

(5) The Public Service Commissioner has, under the general direction of the Minister, supervision, direction and control of the Public Service Commission and shall supervise the performance of the functions of the Commission. 2001, c. 4, s. 42.

Duties of Commissioner

17B The Public Service Commission shall

(a) determine the human-resource management policies, programs, standards and procedures necessary for the public service and may require any part of the public service to develop those policies, programs, standards and procedures under a framework established by the Commission;

(b) provide the public service direction, advice and assistance regarding the implementation and application of human-resource management policies, programs, standards and procedures;

(c) having regard to legal and fiscal consequences, take such measures as the Commission considers necessary to ensure the public service implements the human-resource management policies, programs, standards and procedures that are developed;

(d) assess or audit the implementation of human-resource management policies, programs, standards and procedures by the public service and the carrying out by the public service of any other responsibilities arising pursuant to this Act;

(e) at the request of the Minister, provide advice to the Minister regarding human-resource management and collective bargaining in the public service;

(f) provide such direction as it considers appropriate to the public service or any part of the public service in relation to collective bargaining;

(g) maintain such records as the Commission considers necessary for the proper administration of this Act; and

(h) perform such other duties and functions as are assigned to it by the Governor in Council. 2001, c. 4, s. 42.

Powers of Commissioner

17C The Public Service Commission may, for the public service or any part of the public service,

(a) review compensation policies and practices applicable to classes of persons in the public service and develop and implement such policies and practices as the Commission considers necessary to ensure that those persons are compensated appropriately;

(2) All employees of the House of Assembly, other than the Chief Clerk, Assistant Clerk and Sergeant-at-Arms, shall be appointed by the Commission. R.S., c. 376, s. 76; 2010, c. 5, s. 35.

77 to 79 repealed 2010, c. 5, s. 36.

Powers and duties of Commission

80 All matters relating to the issuing of orders or requisitions, the passing of accounts and the general expenditure of moneys in connection with the House, other than members’ indemnity, shall be dealt with and settled by the House of Assembly Management Commission. R.S., c. 376, s. 80; 2010, c. 5, s. 37.

Complaint respecting employee of House

81 If any complaint or representation is made to the Speaker of the House regarding the conduct or fitness of any officer, employee, messenger or other person attendant on the House, it is lawful for the Speaker to cause an inquiry to be made into the conduct or fitness of such person. R.S., c. 376, s. 81.

Suspension of employee of House
82 If it appears to the Speaker that such person has misconducted himself or is unfit to hold his position, the Speaker may, if such person has been appointed by the Governor in Council, suspend the person and report such suspension to the Governor in Council and, if the person has been appointed by the House of Assembly Management Commission, suspend the person and report such suspension to the Commission, which is hereby authorized to take such action as may be deemed necessary. R.S., c. 376, s. 82; 2010, c. 5, s. 38.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Powers and duties of official appointed under statute
83 Every official appointed under the authority of this Act or any other statute of the Province shall have such powers and perform such duties as are specified in any statute in that behalf or as are, from time to time, determined by the Governor in Council. R.S., c. 376, s. 83; revision corrected.

Associate deputy minister
84 The Governor in Council may appoint a person to be an associate deputy minister who shall be paid such salary as the Governor in Council determines and shall perform such duties as are, from time to time, prescribed by the Governor in Council. 2009, c. 14, s. 15.

Assistant deputy minister
84A The Governor in Council may appoint a person to be an assistant deputy minister who shall be paid such salary as the Governor in Council determines and shall perform such duties as are, from time to time, prescribed by the Governor in Council. 2009, c. 14, s. 15.

Regulations on letting of contracts
85 The Governor in Council may from time to time make regulations respecting the letting of contracts for the execution of public works, after advertisement asking tenders therefor, and generally for such guards and provisions as appear most judicious for the checking of any abuse and the more vigilant and faithful husbanding of the public moneys. R.S., c. 376, s. 85.

Administrative Assistant to Premier
86 (1) The Governor in Council may appoint a person to be Administrative Assistant to the Premier, who shall be paid such salary as the Governor in Council determines and who shall perform such duties as are, from time to time, prescribed by the Premier or by the Governor in Council.
(2) The Administrative Assistant to the Premier has the status of a deputy head and the provisions of the Civil Service Act relating to a deputy or to a deputy head apply to the Administrative Assistant. R.S., c. 376, s. 86.

87 repealed 2014, c. 34, s. 52.

Early retirement

88 (1) Notwithstanding anything in the Public Service Superannuation Act, or the regulations made pursuant thereto, respecting retirement, the Governor in Council may designate any person, or class of persons, or member of a class of persons, appointed to positions in the public service as a special class who have a right to retire after a minimum number of years of eligible service and upon attaining an age prescribed for early retirement.

(2) A person entitled to retire pursuant to this Section may elect to retire from the public service and receive an immediate pension pursuant to this Section.

(3) For the purpose of this Section, the Governor in Council may, from time to time, either generally or specifically,

(a) prescribe the minimum number of years of eligible service required for early retirement;

(b) prescribe the minimum age for early retirement;

(c) order a special payment to a person entitled to retire pursuant to this Section;

(d) give additional service credit for the purpose of the calculation of a pension pursuant to this Section;

(e) determine the basis of calculating a pension;

(f) order that the pension be increased in relation to the cost of living, or otherwise, as the Governor in Council may determine.

(4) All survivor and other benefits which apply to a superannuation allowance paid under the Public Service Superannuation Act apply in respect of the pension payable pursuant to this Section as if they were set forth herein, except that the benefits shall be based upon the pension payable pursuant to this Section.

(5) Notwithstanding Section 54 of the Public Service Superannuation Act, an election to retire and receive a pension pursuant to this Section does not affect a person’s entitlement to an allowance or benefits pursuant to that Act.

(6) Where a person elects to retire and receive a pension pursuant to this Section, and where that person or that person’s survivor is or becomes entitled to a superannuation allowance or other benefits pursuant to the Public Service
Superannuation Act, payments made in accordance with this Section shall be reduced by the amount of that allowance or those benefits.

(7) All payments made pursuant to this Section shall be charged to the General Revenue Fund of the Province.

(8) A regulation made pursuant to this Section may, if it so provides, be made retroactive in its operation to a date not earlier than the first day of April, 1986.

(9) In this Section, “eligible service” means eligible service within the meaning and for the purpose of the Public Service Superannuation Act. R.S., c. 376, s. 88; 2010, c. 2, s. 145; 2014, c. 34, s. 53.

Regulations 89

(1) The Governor in Council may make regulations designating a body or class of bodies, other than municipalities, that receive substantial funding from the Province, that manage assets of the Province or that are contracted to perform services for the Province pursuant to an enactment or otherwise, as a government agency or government agencies for the purpose of subsection 10(1).

(2) The Governor in Council may make regulations expanding the definition of “public service” in Section 17 to include employees of other bodies or classes of bodies, other than municipalities, that receive substantial funding from the Province, that manage assets of the Province, or that are contracted to perform services for the Province pursuant to an enactment or otherwise.

(3) The exercise by the Governor in Council of the authority contained in subsections (1) and (2) is regulations within the meaning of the Regulations Act. 2001, c. 4, s. 50.
