Short title

1 This Act may be cited as the Regulations Act. R.S., c. 393, s. 1.

APRIL 1, 2025

Interpretation

2 In this Act,

(a) “Deputy Attorney General” means the Deputy Attorney General and includes a lawyer employed in the Legal Services Division of the Department of Justice;

(b) “file” means file with the Registrar in the manner prescribed in Section 3 and the regulations;

(c) “local authority” means a city, town, municipality, service commission or village as defined by the Municipal Affairs Act, and includes a corporation thereof, and the Conseil scolaire acadien provincial, and every local board of health and every other board, commission, committee, body or authority established or exercising power or authority under a general or special Act with respect to the affairs or purposes of a city, town, municipality, service commission or village;

(d) and (e) repealed 2022, c. 54, s. 1.

(f) “Registrar” means the Registrar of Regulations appointed under this Act;

(g) “regulation” means a rule, order, proclamation, regulation, by-law, form, resolution or tariff of costs or fees made in the exercise of a legislative power conferred by or under an Act of the Legislature

(i) by the Governor in Council,

(ii) by the minister presiding over any department of the public service of the Province or by any official of such department, whether or not such regulation is subject to the approval of the Governor in Council,

(iii) by any board, commission, agency or body listed in the Schedule to this Act or added thereto by the Governor in Council in accordance with this Act, whether or not such regulation is subject to the approval of the Governor in Council, or

(iv) the exercise of which power is declared by the Act conferring it to be a regulation within the meaning of this Act, but does not include a rule, order, proclamation, regulation, by-law, form, resolution or tariff of costs or fees made by

(v) a local authority, or

(vi) a corporation incorporated by private or public Act of the Legislature or by the board of directors or the board of management of such corporation unless it is a board, commission, agency or body listed in the Schedule or added thereto by the Governor in Council in accordance with this Act;

(h) “regulation-making authority” means any authority authorized to make regulations and, with reference to any particular regulation or proposed regulation, means the authority that made or proposes to make the regulation. R.S., c. 393, s. 2; 2018, c. 1, Sch. A, s. 148; 2022, c. 54, s. 1.

Attorney General has supervision and management of Act

2A The Attorney General is responsible for the general supervision and management of this Act and the regulations. 2022, c. 54, s. 2.

Filing of regulation

3 (1) Every regulation or a certified copy thereof must be filed in duplicate with the Registrar, together with two copies of the following:

(a) the original or a certified copy of the executive order or other instrument that made the regulation and contains all of the information set out in subsection (1A); or

(b) where the executive order or instrument referred to in clause (a) is not available or where requested by the Registrar, a certificate signed by the person filing the regulation that contains all of the information set out in subsection (1A).

(1A) The following information is required for the purpose of subsection (1):

(a) the name of the person who made the regulation;

(b) the Act and Section number under which the regulation was made;

(c) the date on which the regulation was made; and

(d) where approval by another authority is required, the date of the approval and two copies of the certificate referred to in subsection (2).

(2) Where approval of a regulation by another authority is required, the approving authority or a responsible officer thereof shall give a certificate of approval to the authority making the regulation when the approval has been given.

(3) Where a regulation is made or approved by the Governor in Council, the Clerk of the Executive Council shall file with the Registrar two copies of the regulation certified by the Clerk of the Executive Council to be true copies and the filing of those copies is deemed compliance with subsections (1), (1A) and (2).

(4) Where, before the filing thereof, a regulation has been amended by any subsequent regulation, the filing of the first-mentioned regulation as amended is deemed to be compliance with this Section.

(5) Where

(a) a diagram, map or plan forms part of a regulation;

(b) a regulation approves the form or substance of an agreement or other document; or

(c) a regulation adopts any other regulation or a code or a document as forming part of the regulation as if enacted therein, a copy of the map, plan, agreement, regulation, code or document shall be filed with the Registrar, and the Registrar may thereupon, at the Registrar's discretion, dispense with the publication of the diagram, map, plan, agreement, regulation, code or document.

(5A) A regulation is considered filed under this Act when the Registrar has endorsed on the regulation, either physically or electronically,

(a) the number assigned under Section 18, the day, month and year of filing and the word “filed”; and

(b) any words adopted by the Registrar to identify the Registrar or the Registrar’s office and the Province.

(6) A regulation comes into force on the day on which it is filed with the Registrar unless

(a) the regulation expressly states that it comes into force on a day that is later than the day on which it is filed, in which case it comes into force on such later day;

(b) the regulation expressly states that it comes into force on a day that is earlier than the day on which it is filed and the Act under which it is made expressly authorizes the making of the regulation with retroactive effect, in which case it comes into force as provided by that Act; or

(c) the Act under which the regulation is made expressly authorizes a different method for the regulation to come into force, in which case it comes into force as provided by that Act.

(7) Notwithstanding any other statute or law, a regulation that has not been filed is of no effect.

R.S., c. 393, s. 3; 2004, c. 46, s. 1; 2022, c. 54, s. 3.

Deemed filing on specified date

3A (1) Notwithstanding subsection (6) of Section 3, where the Attorney General considers it in the public interest to do so, the Attorney General may, by regulation, order that a regulation is deemed to have been filed on any specified date that is on or after the date it was made but before it is filed and, where the Attorney General so orders, the regulation is deemed to have been filed on the specified date.

(2) To prevent persons from being affected adversely by a regulation that is deemed to have been filed on a specified date under subsection (1), the Attorney General may include in the regulation conditions that vary the effect of the regulation that is being deemed to be filed on a specified date during the period between the specified date of filing and the actual date of filing. 2022, c. 54, s. 4.

Electronic filing

3B (1) A person may file a regulation electronically if the regulation is filed in a format and manner acceptable to the Registrar.

(2) A regulation filed electronically under this Section is deemed to comply with the requirements in clause 3(1)(a) for an original or certified copy.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection 3(1), only one copy of the regulation and the certificate required by clause 3(1A)(d) is required for a regulation that is filed electronically. 2022, c. 54, s. 4.

Electronic signature

3C Any regulation, executive order, certificate or form that is required to be signed by a person for filing with the Registrar may be filed with the Registrar if it is signed with an electronic signature acceptable to the Registrar. 2022, c. 54, s. 4.

Publication of regulation

4 (1) The Registrar shall, within thirty days of the day upon which a regulation is filed, publish the regulation in the Royal Gazette.

(1A) The publication of the Royal Gazette in print or electronic form constitutes the official gazette of the Province in accordance with subsection (1) of Section 17 of the Communications and Information Act.

(2) The Attorney General may at any time, by order, extend the time for publication of a regulation.

(3) The Attorney General, on the recommendation of the Registrar, may by order dispense with the publication of a regulation if, in the opinion of the Attorney General,

(a) the regulation is of such length or complexity to render publication in the Royal Gazette unpractical or unduly expensive;

(b) alternative reasonable steps have been taken for the purpose of bringing the purport of the regulation to the notice of the public or persons likely to be affected by it;

(c) an electronic version of the regulation is not available;

(d) the electronic version of the regulation is in a format that renders publication in the Royal Gazette unpractical;

(e) the regulation is no longer in force at the time of publication and alternative notice of the regulation has been provided to the public;

(f) the regulation belongs to a class of regulations prescribed by the regulations as being permitted to be dispensed with as a class; or

(g) such other criteria, as prescribed by the regulations, exist, and the regulation upon filing is as valid against all persons as if it had been published.

(4) Where by order of the Attorney General the time for publication of a regulation is extended or publication thereof is dispensed with, the Registrar shall publish the order or a notice of the order in the Royal Gazette within thirty days after the making thereof.

(5) Where, under subsection (4), a notice dispensing with the publication of an order is published in the Royal Gazette, the notice shall state that copies of the regulation are filed with the Registrar and may be inspected at the Registrar's office and that copies may be obtained from the Registrar's office, from the King's Printer or from the office or the department concerned, as the case may be. R.S., c. 393, s. 4; 2004, c. 46, s. 2; 2022, c. 54, s. 5.

Effect of filing or publication where defective

5 The filing or publication of a regulation under this Act does not have the effect of validating or correcting any such regulation that is otherwise invalid or defective in any respect or for any reason. R.S., c. 393, s. 5.

Failure to publish regulation

6 No regulation is invalid by reason only that it has not been published in accordance with Section 4, but no person shall be affected adversely or be convicted of a contravention of a regulation that, on the date of the alleged contravention or the date the person is affected adversely, had not been published unless

(a) either

(i) publication of the regulation has been dispensed with under subsection (3) of Section 4, or

(ii) the Act under which the regulation was made provides that a regulation made under the Act may be brought into force before it is published in the Royal Gazette; and

(b) it is proved that, before the date of the alleged contravention or the date a person is affected adversely, reasonable steps had been taken for the purpose of bringing the purport of the regulation to the notice of the public or of the persons likely to be affected by it or of the person charged. R.S., c. 393, s. 6; 2022, c. 54, s. 6.

Prima facie evidence of filing

7 Where a regulation has not been published in accordance with Section 4, production of the regulation proved in the manner provided by the Evidence Act is prima facie evidence of the filing of the regulation in accordance with this Act. R.S., c. 393, s. 7; 2022, c. 54, s. 7.

Prima facie evidence of filing on specified date

8 (1) Production of a certificate of the Registrar that a regulation was filed on a specified date is prima facie evidence that it was filed on that date.

(2) No proof is required of the signature or official position of the Registrar in respect of a certificate produced as evidence under subsection (1). R.S., c. 393, s. 8.

Effect of publication

9 (1) Publication of a regulation in accordance with Section 4 is

(a) prima facie proof of its text and of its making, its approval where required, and its filing; and

(b) deemed to be notice of its contents to every person subject to it or affected by it.

(2) Judicial notice shall be taken of a regulation that is published in accordance with Section 4. R.S., c. 393, s. 9; 2022, c. 54, s. 8.

Right to inspect or obtain copy

10 (1) Every person is, during the regular office hours of the Registrar, entitled to

- (a) inspect a regulation filed with the Registrar; and
- (b) obtain a copy or a certified copy of a regulation filed with the Registrar.

(2) No person shall be required, as a condition of the person's right of inspection under subsection (1), to disclose the name of the person for or in respect of whom such access or inspection is sought. R.S., c. 393, s. 10; 2022, c. 54, s. 9.

Damaged original regulation

10A (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Registrar may replace with a copy a regulation, or a document filed with a regulation, that the Registrar considers to be deteriorating, worn or damaged beyond repair.

(2) Where a regulation or document is replaced under subsection (1), the Registrar shall attach to, or endorse on, the replacement copy a certificate by the Registrar stating that the replacement copy is a true copy of the original regulation or document. 2022, c. 54, s. 10.

Storage of regulation at Public Archives

10B (1) For the purpose of preserving the laws of the Province, a regulation that has been superseded or that the Registrar considers to be deteriorating, worn or damaged beyond repair must be transferred to the Public Archives of Nova Scotia in accordance with a schedule for the retention and archiving of Provincial regulations.

(2) The Deputy Attorney General and the Registrar shall establish the schedule referred to in subsection (1) after consultation with the Provincial Archivist of Nova Scotia or such other officer or employee of the Public Archives as the Provincial Archivist may designate.

(3) The schedule referred to in subsection (1) may also provide for the transfer and archiving of regulations other than those referred to in subsection (1) and the Registrar may transfer those regulations to the Public Archives in accordance with the schedule. 2022, c. 54, s. 10.

Proposed regulation to Deputy Attorney General

11 (1) Where a regulation-making authority proposes to make a regulation that is to be made by or must be approved by the Governor in Council or a member of the Executive Council, it shall forward a copy of the proposed regulation to the Deputy Attorney General.

(2) Upon receipt of a proposed regulation pursuant to subsection (1), the Deputy Attorney General shall examine the proposed regulation to ensure that

- (a) it is authorized by the statute pursuant to which it is to be made;
- (b) it does not constitute an unusual or unexpected use of the authority pursuant to which it is to be made; and
- (c) the form and draftsmanship of the proposed regulation are in accordance with established standards.

(3) When a proposed regulation has been examined as required by subsection (2), the Deputy Attorney General shall advise the regulation-making authority that the proposed regulation has been so examined and shall indicate any matter referred to in clause (a), (b) or (c) of that subsection to which in the Deputy Attorney General's opinion, based on such examination, the attention of the regulation-making authority should be drawn.

(4) Subsection (1) does not apply to any proposed rule, order or regulation governing the practice or procedure in proceedings before the courts.

(5) This Section comes into force on and not before such day as the Governor in Council orders and declares by proclamation. R.S., c. 393, s. 11; 1996, c. 23, s. 29; 2022, c. 54, s. 11.

Proclaimed - February 4, 2005
In force - March 4, 2005

Determination of whether or not regulation

12 Where any regulation-making authority or other authority responsible for the issue, making or establishment of a regulation, or any person acting on behalf of such an authority, is uncertain as to whether or not a proposed rule, order, regulation, ordinance, direction, form, tariff of costs or fees, commission, warrant, proclamation, by-law or resolution would be a regulation if it were issued, made or established by such authority, the authority or person shall cause a copy of the same to be forwarded to the Deputy Attorney General who shall determine whether or not it would be a regulation if it were so issued, made or established. R.S., c. 393, s. 12.

Refusal by Registrar to file

13 (1) Where a document is transmitted or forwarded to the Registrar for filing under this Act, the Registrar may refuse to file the document if

- (a) the Registrar is advised that pursuant to Section 12 the document was determined by the Deputy Attorney General to be one that would not be a regulation if it were issued, made or established; or
- (b) in the Registrar's opinion, the instrument was, before it was issued, made or established, a proposed regulation to which subsection (1) of Section 11 applied and was not examined in accordance with subsection (2) of that Section.

(2) Where the Registrar refuses to file any document for the reasons referred to in subsection (1), the Registrar shall forward a copy of the document to the Deputy Attorney General who shall determine whether or not it is a regulation or a proposed regulation to which subsection (1) of Section 11 applies and issue directions to the Registrar who shall act in accordance therewith.

(3) Where the Deputy Attorney General decides pursuant to subsection (2) that a document is not a regulation within the meaning of this Act, the Registrar shall submit a report to the Governor in Council advising of the decision within thirty days of being issued directions by the Deputy Attorney General.

(4) Unless otherwise required by the Governor in Council, submission by the Registrar of a brief summary or description of the terms of a document is deemed a sufficient compliance with subsection (3).

(5) The Governor in Council may approve the report or may order that any document or part thereof to which reference is made therein is deemed to be a regulation within the meaning of this Act, and in that case it is deemed to have been subject to the provisions of this Act from the time when it was made or passed.

(6) This Section comes into force on and not before such day as the Governor in Council orders and declares by proclamation R.S., c. 393, s. 13.

Proclaimed - February 4, 2005
In force - March 4, 2005

Discharge of a filing

13A The Registrar may, with the approval of the Attorney General and in accordance with the process and procedures prescribed by the regulations, discharge the filing of any document filed with the Registrar if

- (a) in the opinion of the Deputy Attorney General, the document is not a regulation within the meaning of this Act; or
- (b) this Act does not apply to the document by reason of an exemption or other statement to that effect in an enactment. 2022, c. 54, s. 12.

Registrar of Regulations

14 (1) The Attorney General may, in accordance with the Civil Service Act, appoint a person to be the Registrar of Regulations, who shall perform such duties as are set forth in this Act and as the Attorney General may assign.

- (2) The Registrar is
  - (a) under the control and direction of the Attorney General; and
  - (b) responsible for the recording, numbering and indexing of all regulations filed with the Registrar and for the publication thereof in accordance with this Act. R.S., c. 393, s. 14; 2022, c. 54, s. 13.

Deputy Registrar of Regulations

15 (1) The Attorney General may, in accordance with the Civil Service Act, appoint a person to be the Deputy Registrar of Regulations, who shall perform such duties as are set forth in this Act and as the Attorney General may assign.

(2) The Deputy Registrar of Regulations

(a) is under the control and direction of the Attorney General; and

(b) in the absence of the Registrar or at the request of or with the approval of the Registrar or of the Attorney General, may exercise the powers and shall perform the duties of the Registrar. R.S., c. 393, s. 15; 2022, c. 54, s. 14.

Administration

16 (1) Any other officers and personnel required for the purposes or the administration of this Act shall be appointed in accordance with, and are subject to, the Civil Service Act and the regulations made under it.

(2) For the purposes of the Public Service Superannuation Act, the Registrar, the Deputy Registrar of Regulations and every full-time employee required for the purposes of this Act is and is deemed to be a person employed in the public service of the Province and employment pursuant to this Act is and is deemed to be public service.

(3) The costs and expenses incurred in the administration of this Act may be paid out of the General Revenue Fund. R.S., c. 393, s. 16; 2010, c. 2, s. 84.

Office hours

17 The office hours of the Registrar are such as are fixed by the Governor in Council. R.S., c. 393, s. 17.

Numbering of regulations

18 Regulations shall be numbered in the order in which they are filed and a new series shall be commenced in each calendar year. R.S., c. 393, s. 18.

Citation of regulations

19 A regulation when filed may be cited as “Nova Scotia Regulations” or “N.S. Reg.”, followed by the number thereof, an oblique stroke and the four figures of the calendar year in which the regulation was filed. R.S., c. 393, s. 19; 1999 (2nd Sess.), c. 8, s. 13.

Deemed reference to regulations and amendments

20 (1) A reference in any Act or regulation to a line, word or other portion of or in any Section, subsection, clause, subclause or paragraph of or in a regulation is deemed to be a reference thereto as it appears in the regulation

(a) as published in accordance with Section 4; or

(b) in the case of a regulation, publication of which has been dispensed with under subsection (3) of Section 4, as published in the printed, mimeographed or typewritten form in which it has been made available as mentioned in that subsection.

(2) A citation of, or a reference to, a regulation in a regulation or in a recommendation or report made to a regulation-making authority in connection therewith is deemed to be a citation of, or a reference to, the regulation as amended. R.S., c. 393, s. 20; 2022, c. 54, s. 15.

Governor in Council regulations

- 21 (1) The Governor in Council may make regulations
- (a) prescribing the powers and duties of the Registrar;
  - (b) prescribing the form and arrangement of regulations;
  - (c) prescribing a system of filing and of indexing regulations;
  - (ca) prescribing methods and rules for the electronic filing and indexing of regulations that supplement or provide alternatives to the rules described in this Act to permit the establishment of an electronic regulations filing system or otherwise address technology;
  - (cb) prescribing criteria that allows the Attorney General to dispense with the publication of a regulation or a class of regulations in accordance with Section 4;
  - (d) providing for the publication of consolidations of regulations filed pursuant to this Act, at such intervals or times as the Governor in Council deems advisable, and for the publication of supplements to the consolidations;
  - (e) providing for the inspection of regulations;
  - (f) prescribing the fees or charges to be made for inspecting a regulation filed with the Registrar or obtaining a copy or certified copy of a regulation; and
  - (g) generally for the carrying out of the provisions of this Act.

(2) The Governor in Council, from time to time, may amend the Schedule to this Act by adding thereto or removing therefrom the names of such boards, commissions, agencies or bodies as the Governor in Council determines. R.S., c. 393, s. 21; 2004, c. 46, s. 3; 2022, c. 54, s. 16.

Attorney General regulations

- 21A The Attorney General may make regulations
- (a) ordering that a regulation is deemed to have been filed on a specified date that is on or after the date it was made but before it is filed in accordance with Section 3A;
  - (b) prescribing the process and procedures required to be followed in discharging the filing of any document under Section 13A;
  - (c) prescribing the manner in which a copy of a regulation may indicate that it is an authorized version prepared by the authority of the Registrar. 2022, c. 54, s. 17.

Exercise of authority is a regulation

21B (1) The exercise by the Governor in Council of the authority contained in Section 21 is a regulation within the meaning of this Act.

(2) The exercise by the Attorney General of the authority contained in Section 21A is a regulation within the meaning of this Act. 2022, c. 54, s. 17.

Revision and consolidation

22 (1) The Registrar of Regulations is hereby appointed Regulations Reviser to consolidate and revise under the direction of the Attorney General the regulations of the Province.

(2) In preparing a consolidation and revision of the regulations of the Province, the Regulations Reviser may

(a) omit therefrom all regulations and parts thereof that have expired, been repealed or suspended;

(b) alter the numbering and arrangement of the regulations in force on the completion of the work, and of the different Sections and other provisions thereof;

(c) alter the language of the regulations as may be required in order to preserve a uniform mode of expression;

(d) make such minor amendments to the regulations as are necessary in order to state more clearly what the person deems to have been intended thereby;

(da) combine two or more regulations or parts thereof or subdivide any regulation into two or more regulations;

(db) add, change or omit any title of any regulation;

(e) make such amendments as are required to reconcile seemingly inconsistent regulations or to correct clerical, typographical or printing errors.

(3) A consolidation and revision of the regulations shall include, as a schedule thereto, a list of regulations or parts of regulations superseded by the consolidated and revised regulations.

(4) When the Regulations Reviser has completed the work or any portion thereof that the Governor in Council determines, the Regulations Reviser shall incorporate it in a report and submit it to the Attorney General for examination.

(5) When the Attorney General has completed the examination, the Attorney General shall report to the Governor in Council whether the Attorney General approves of the work and, if the Attorney General approves and the Governor in Council also approves, the Attorney General may cause the regulation incorporated in the report and schedules thereto to be printed under the general title of Revised and Consolidated Regulations of Nova Scotia.

(6) The Revised and Consolidated Regulations of Nova Scotia come into force on a date fixed by the Governor in Council.

(7) Before any regulations or schedules of the Revised and Consolidated Regulations of Nova Scotia are printed, the Governor in Council may, after consultation with the Regulations Reviser, change their language to preserve a uniform mode of expression or make minor amendments to bring out more clearly what is considered to be the intention of the Legislature or to reconcile seemingly inconsistent regulations or to correct clerical or typographical errors, but shall make no change in substance.

(8) Where the consolidated and revised regulations are available for inspection at the office of the Registrar and available for sale to the public through the Registrar's office or the Office of the King's Printer, the publication thereof in the Royal Gazette is not required and they are deemed to have been published as required by Section 4.

(9) On the coming into force of the consolidated and revised regulations, the superseded regulations set out in the schedule to which reference is made in subsection (3) are conclusively deemed to have been repealed, and any superseded regulation set out in the schedule is deemed to have been filed in accordance with this Act.

(10) Where authority is granted in any Act of the Legislature to make regulations, that authority is not diminished or affected by the publication or coming into effect of consolidated or revised regulations, and the person or authority that is authorized to make regulations under an Act of the Legislature has the same authority to amend or repeal any consolidated or revised regulation that was initially made under that Act or any Act which was substituted for that Act.

(11) The Regulations Reviser shall be paid out of the General Revenue Fund whatever amount the Governor in Council determines.

(12) Publication of a regulation in the Revised and Consolidated Regulations of Nova Scotia or any supplement thereto is deemed to be publication within the meaning of this Act. R.S., c. 393, s. 22; 1996, c. 23, s. 30; 2004, c. 46, s. 4; 2010, c. 2, s. 84; 2022, c. 54, s. 18.

New regulations

22A (1) After the publication of the Revised and Consolidated Regulations of Nova Scotia, the Regulations Reviser shall incorporate into them, and cause to be published as part of them, any new regulation filed under this Act.

(2) In preparing a consolidation and revision of a regulation pursuant to this Section, the Regulations Reviser may

- (a) alter the numbering and arrangement of the different Sections and other provisions of the regulation;
- (b) alter the language of the regulation as may be required in order to preserve a uniform mode of expression;
- (c) make such minor amendments to the regulation as are necessary in order to state more clearly what the Regulations Reviser deems to have been intended by the regulation;
- (d) combine the regulation with any other regulation or part thereof or subdivide the regulation into two or more regulations;

- (e) add, change or omit any title of the regulation;
- (f) make such amendments as are required to reconcile seemingly inconsistent regulations or to correct clerical, typographical or printing errors. 2004, c. 46, s. 5.

Publication of Revised and Consolidated Regulations

22B (1) The Revised and Consolidated Regulations of Nova Scotia may be published in print or in electronic form.

(2) The Revised and Consolidated Regulations of Nova Scotia published in an electronic form may differ from the publication in another form to accommodate the needs of the electronic form if the differences do not alter the substance of the regulations. 2004, c. 46, s. 5.

Consolidation and minor amendments

22BA (1) The Registrar may from time to time prepare and publish, in print or electronic form, a consolidation of the regulations filed with the Registrar.

(2) In preparing a consolidation of the regulations under this Section, the Registrar may, without altering the legal effect of any regulation,

- (a) correct spelling, capitalization, punctuation, grammatical errors or other errors of a clerical, typographical or similar nature;
- (b) alter the style or presentation of text or graphics to be consistent with the style and formatting practices of the Registrar's office or to improve electronic or print presentation and accessibility;
- (c) alter the numbering and structure of a provision or other portion of a regulation to accord with current legislative standards and practices, and to make any corrections to cross-references required as a result of the alteration;
- (d) correct an error in a cross-reference;
- (e) replace a description of a date or time with the actual date or time;
- (f) make minor editorial changes required in order to preserve a uniform mode of expression;
- (g) make such minor editorial corrections to a regulation as are necessary in order to reconcile inconsistent provisions or to state more clearly what the Registrar deems to have been intended by the regulation or an amendment to the regulation;
- (h) combine a regulation with any other regulation or part thereof or subdivide a regulation into two or more regulations;
- (i) add, change or omit any title to a regulation;
- (j) alter headings to a regulation;
- (k) replace a form of reference to an Act or regulation, or a provision or other portion of an Act or regulation, with a different form of reference, in accordance with the drafting practices of the Registrar's office; and

(l) include legislative history, referential aids or other information that may be helpful to the public in understanding the relevant legislative history or otherwise enhances the readability of the consolidation.

(3) The Registrar shall record all changes made in accordance with subsection (2) as the Registrar considers appropriate.

(4) Tables of contents, marginal notes, information included to provide legislative history, parenthetical cross-referential aids, headnotes, headers, except for Section numbers that may appear as part of headers, and other readability aids that are inserted by the Registrar into a consolidated regulation prepared by the Registrar are for convenience of reference only and do not form part of the regulation.

(5) Consolidated regulations prepared by the Registrar under this Section are not new laws, but must be interpreted, construed and given effect as a consolidation of the regulations.

(6) Other than a regulation to which subsection 22C(2) applies, where a regulation consolidated under this Section is amended, the amendments must be to the regulation as consolidated.

(7) In the event of an inconsistency between a consolidated regulation prepared by the Registrar under this Section and the regulation or a subsequent amendment as filed with the Registrar under Section 3, the regulation or amendment as filed prevails to the extent of the inconsistency. 2022, c. 54, s. 19.

Evidence of regulation

22C (1) A copy of a consolidated regulation published under this Act in either print or electronic form may be given as evidence of that regulation in any court pursuant to the Evidence Act, and every copy purporting to be published in accordance with this Act is deemed to be so published, unless the contrary is shown.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a copy if it contains a disclaimer to the effect that it is prepared for the purposes of convenience only and is not intended as an authoritative text. 2004, c. 46, s. 5.

Filing and publication of existing regulations

24 (1) Every regulation in effect on the first of April, 1977, shall be filed with the Registrar within one year of that day.

(2) A regulation filed pursuant to subsection (1) is not required to be published in the Royal Gazette.

(3) A regulation in effect on the first day of April, 1977, that is not filed with the Registrar within one year of that day ceases to have effect on the day next following that day. R.S., c. 393, s. 24.
