Subject: Bill 75

Dear MLAs : I am not a teacher, but a grandparent, and am SO disappointed with this vote. And I sadly fear for the education of our future generations. I gave this response to the newest hopeful member of this liberal club , who claims that his party wants to " rejuvenate" the school system. With an infusion of money to go study the problems . Again. Half paid by the teachers themselves ( like a teacher tax, along with the other cutbacks). This also pertains to all liberals. If any of you have any real answers for me I would like to hear them. This will go down in history. Children from primary to twelve will remember this decision, this very bad decision.

"Please tell me How, Mr McKay, you can rejuvenate the system when your government is doing the very opposite of this to the systems workers.

I need to know,. You now have so very ,very ,many angry teachers ,who have put up with so much disrespect and contempt from this government, what kind of whip are you going to crack on them to get them to obey ....which they always did happily before , from the sheer love of their job. I'm talking about all the extras here where they go above and beyond. Your government has taken away all motivation for some, others will flee. you have NO Idea what it takes to a be a good teacher and our teachers always strived to be their best. And they are the best.

Please explain to me Mr McKay , again, how will you motivate them now? or anyone involved in the system. Even more outraged are the parents and their families , because their children will be the most affected. You can't throw enough money in to fix that.

And while I'm asking questions , why do you liberals, always have to attack and blame everyone but yourselves, first you blame a the previous gov't , then you blame the teachers (Think Hawaii) , then you blame the union, .. Wow, ..by doing all these things you are fanning the fires . Hate to inform you but we acknowledge that we all share in the blame ,it's old news,we don't need to play the blame game anymore, we need to fix this .Please tell me how your government will be able to do that. Any education starts with the teachers

Last question. Why are all the MLAs , all committing political suicide?. Overall, None seemed to care. They could have all been Heroes. They could have done the right thing. Maybe I should go ask Karen or Steve.

There is something going very wrong here , when tens of thousands of people , and all the opposition can not change one liberals mind , it's something very fishy , something very rotten and boy does this stink .

Welcome to the liberal party of NS mr macKay , I'm sure you'll fit tight in"

THE WHEELS ARE COMING OFF THE BUS!!!! This is the state of education in NS today. Would you like your children to be taught by a demoralized and browbeaten teacher? Ones who feel the contempt of their minister every single day? How can one do a good job under these appalling conditions , could you? Do you think they can do their best under these conditions , the children will suffer, believe me. HOW CAN THEY FIND THE HEART TO DO THE EXTRAS NOW??

Please,Please, vote with your conscience on this bill. Do not let Stephen McNeil whip you into submission on this,

It's too important to education, and to your future too

It is "TEACHER APPRECIATION WEEK" for god's sake..show some respect This bill shows the teachers how very much they are UNDER APPRECIATED Carol Cooper BeaverBank NS

ps Non liberals this is just an FYI

If you are not a liberal, this is just an FYI

To all liberal MLAs

The depth of Karen Casey and McNeil's hatred and contempt for teachers ( and yes I think this is personal now) is only magnified by their determination to call this "emergency" session during what is TEACHER APPRECIATION WEEK across Canada, and, in the worst blizzard this year no less. It is the worst slap in the face yet

Please, please do not be so woefully, and willfully ignorant of the facts here and allow yourself to be whipped by this bully of a Premier. And I'm sure you know he is a bully because I'm sure he has been bullying you too. Please reconsider your vote, and maybe come election we will reconsider ours.

If you are bothered at all by the demonstrations, then I pity you all at election time, I'm sure the ABL campaign will be phenomenal.

And to my MLA , mr Horne , you will not be getting my vote if you vote for this bill Carol Cooper BeaverBank NS Ps I do not expect a reply to this email, unless it is good news, so..don't even bother Sent from my iPad Sent from my iPad

Another post I am very interested in going around social media:

You people should really pay attention . I think you are all so focused on punishing teachers and taking away union rights and shi**ing on labour laws as well as the constitution, that you will be blindsided by the fallout We supporters of teachers haven't even got started yet

So here is how this is going to happen. The numbers aren't big. Only 410 thousand people voted in the last election. If each teacher recruits 8 people who voted Liberal in the last election and gets them to shift their vote to either opposition party, McNeil loses his majority, or even government. If film workers, nurses and other organized employees disturbed by his unethical and unconstitutional labour practices do the same, it would require even fewer converts per person. And that is not counting the 20K in this group. If just each one of us switch two 2013 Liberal voters in this election, we will have dug McNeil's political grave.

It's just math ;)

Question asked on social media:

Who was that MLA from Yarmouth, SUPER RUDE BEHAVIOUR in Legislature

One answer ( of many)

Zach Churchill son of a lovely mom who was a teacher. At the Liberal AGM three years ago I spoke on the problems in education that we are now so familiar with. She thanked me. So did he. She had recently retired and I believe was still subbing. Such a nice person.

He went from a student to an MLA. No work experience himself.

Nice move Zach, SHAME ON YOU, YOU SHAME YOUR MOTHER TOO
