Good Morning,

As a permanent resident of Nova Scotia, I am addressing some concerns I have with regard to the new Non Resident Property Tax.

I believe this tax will hinder individuals from other provinces from investing in Nova Scotia.

The non residents that spend their summers in Nova Scotia at their cottages do bring tourism dollars to this province. We need this income. This tax will also discourage progress including health care. I have heard people say that the non residents are clogging the health care system, however with more income for the province better health care can be provided to all. Progress will happen and with progress the possibility of a higher standard of living is attainable.

Thank you for the opportunity to express my views.

Sincerely,

Bente J. Genereux
