To all MLA's of Nova Scotia and the Law Amendments Committee

I am writing to express my disappointment in the special legislation that is before the Law Amendments Committee now.

Almost 78% of Antigonish County and Town residents want a vote on this matter (plebiscite). The governments of Antigonish and the Province clearly are ignoring the very people who had them elected.

Please defeat this legislation or withdraw it.

The Councils were never elected to to amalgamate the town and county. The dissolution of the Town and consolidation were never on any council members campaign.

Let the residents decide.

Over 70% said they would not be voting for Michelle Thompson and Greg Morrow and the Conservatives, if this is forced on us. People have good memories and will not forget if you allow this to happen.

Thanking you
