MESSAGE FROM THE SPEAKER

As Speaker of the Nova Scotia House of Assembly and Chair of the House of Assembly

Meetings of the Audit Committee

The Audit Committee met on the following dates during the reporting period.

January 31, 2012

March 27, 2012

October 17, 2012

November 27, 2012

As required by subsection 18(3) of the Act, the Audit Committee reported formally on January 29, 2013, to the Management Commission as follows:

1) At the January 31, 2012 meeting, the audit plan for the year ending 2011 was presented and discussed by representatives from the Office of the Auditor General – there are three components to the audit – a) the financial statements, b) compliance with the House of Assembly Management Act and c) the Chief Clerk's assessment of the effectiveness of internal controls and whether the internal controls are operating efficiently. The committee was informed that the draft financial statements for the year ending March 31, 2011 had been completed and a preliminary report from Ernst & Young was expected regarding the Chief Clerk's certification.

The committee was informed that a draft procedure for receiving and processing complaints received pursuant to clause 18(1)(h) of the House of Assembly Management Commission Act was being prepared, for the committee's consideration at a future meting, to parallel where possible the Public Interest Disclosure of Wrongdoing Act which was proclaimed into force on December 20, 2011.

The members also discussed the requirement that the Chief Clerk provide an opinion as to his assessment of the effectiveness of the internal controls as part of the audit process.

The Quarterly Report of MLA expenses was reviewed and found to be in order.

2) At the March 27, 2012 meeting, the Audit Committee recommended to the House of Assembly Management Commission that the Nova Scotia Auditor General be appointed as auditor of the accounts of the House of Assembly for the 2011-2012 fiscal year ending March 31, 2012.

A draft procedure for receiving and processing complaints received pursuant to clause 18(1)(h) of the House of Assembly Management Commission Act was distributed and discussed.

An audit update was provided - due to some issues arising with the Ernst & Young report regarding the scope of the Chief Clerk's assessment of the effectiveness of internal controls and whether the internal controls are operating efficiently as required by legislation the audit was not proceeding as quickly as expected. A draft certification letter was discussed by the committee and found to be acceptable.

3) At the October 17, 2012 meeting it was noted that one of the challenges in preparing the first set of financial statements for the House of Assembly related to the fixed assets and more particularly their existence and location.

The Audit Committee discussed the Ernst & Young external review of internal controls. Representatives from the Office of the Auditor General advised that they would prefer a broader scope to the external review in the future, however the opinion for the April 1, 2011 to March 31, 2012 period is acceptable for the Office to continue its auditing work. The draft Audit Plan contains a follow-up to the initial February 2010 Auditor General report on the House of Assembly as it relates to implementation of the recommendations.

The Audit Committee adopted a Complaints Procedure for receiving and processing complaints received pursuant to clause 18(1)(h) of the House of Assembly Management Commission Act which parallels as much as possible the process set out in the Public Interest Disclosure of Wrongdoing Act.

The Quarterly Report of MLA expenses was reviewed and found to be in order.

4) At the November 27, 2012 meeting representatives from the Office of the Auditor General advised that the financial statements for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2011 and for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2012 would be available shortly as all the ground work and analysis had been completed. The Auditor General will rely on the compliance with the House of Assembly Management Commission Regulations opinion provided by the Chief Clerk as prepared by Ernst & Young for the time period June 9, 2010 to March 31, 2011.

The Assistant Auditor General commented positively on the manner in which staff and elected officials had responded in making improvements to respond to the matters of concern raised in the Auditor General's February 2010 report and in particular putting in place the House of Assembly Management Commission Act and the House of Assembly Management Commission Regulations.

The draft management letter recommendations were reviewed and it was noted that they will require response from the committee, which response will be included in the Auditor General's Compliance Report.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Chair of the House of Assembly Management Commission:

Report on the Financial Statements

I have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Nova Scotia House of Assembly, which comprise the statement of financial position as at March 31, 2011, and the statements of operations, and changes in net debt for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibilities for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting principles and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error except as explained below.

Auditor's Responsibility

My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit. Except as explained below, I conducted my audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards required that I comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my qualified audit opinion.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

We were not engaged to perform an audit on the prior year's figures. Had we conducted an audit on the prior year's figures, we might have determined adjustments to be necessary to the current year's figures for revenue, expenses, and financial position.

Qualified Opinion

In my opinion, except for the possible effects of the matter described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion paragraph, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Nova Scotia House of Assembly as at March 31, 2011, and its financial performance and its net debt for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting principles.

There are 52 Members of the House of Assembly (MLAs) representing 52 electoral districts. House of Assembly divisions included in these financial statements are the three Caucus Offices, Leaders Offices, Hansard Services, Legislative TV, Legislative Library, House of Assembly Operations, Legislative Counsel, and Government House. 2. Significant Accounting Policies

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles for the public sector. The following are significant accounting policies adopted by the House.

(a) Use of Estimates

The presentation of financial statements, in conformity with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles for the public sector, requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reported period. Actual results could differ from management's best estimates as additional information becomes available in the future.

(b) Revenue Recognition

Revenues are recognized as earned, once the following conditions have been met:

- a) the item has an appropriate basis of measurement, and a reasonable estimate can be made of the amount involved; and
- b) for an item that involves obtaining future economic benefits, it is expected that such benefits will be obtained.

(c) Harmonized Sales Tax

The House does not record in its financial statements any expense for Harmonized Sales Tax (HST) as all HST paid is reimbursed to the Province.

(d) Capital Purchases

Assets with an individual cost greater than or equal to $1,000 are capitalized and amortized over their useful lives. Those assets with a cost less than $1,000 are expensed on the statement of operations.

2. Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Appropriations are the principal means by which entities that do not maintain operations from the sale of goods or services to parties outside the government obtain funding. Therefore, certain amounts paid out of the General Revenue Fund of the Province of Nova Scotia, on behalf of the House, are recognized as revenue rather than a liability as there is no intention for the House to repay the fund at a future date.

Its primary source of funding is through the payment of its expenses from the General Revenue Fund. Included in these statements is a receivable from the Fund in the amount of $850.690.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Chair of the House of Assembly Management Commission:

Report on the Financial Statements

I have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Nova Scotia House of Assembly, which comprise the statement of financial position as at March 31, 2012, and the statements of operations, and changes in net debt for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibilities for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting principles and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit. I conducted my audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards required that I comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my audit opinion.

Opinion

In my opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Nova Scotia House of Assembly as at March 31, 2012, and its financial performance and its net debt for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting principles.

5. Government Contributions

Appropriations are the principal means by which entities that do not maintain operations from the sale of goods or services to parties outside the government obtain funding. Therefore, certain amounts paid out of the General Revenue Fund of the Province of Nova Scotia, on behalf of the House, are recognized as revenue rather than a liability as there is no intention for the House to repay the fund at a future date.

6. Pensions

Members of the Legislative Assembly (MLA) Pension Plan

Pursuant to Section 11 of the Members' Retiring Allowances Act, all members of the House of Assembly are eligible for a retirement allowance under the MLA pension plan after meeting certain conditions set out therein. The plan is funded by employee and employer contributions. Employer contributions are included in the House's operating expenses in the amount of $542,554 (2011-$525,099).

Public Service Superannuation Plan

All employees of the House are entitled to receive pension benefits under the Province of Nova Scotia Public Service Superannuation Act. The plan is funded by equal employee and employer contributions. The employer contributions are included in the House's operating expenses in the amount of $545,588 (2011-$571,285). The House is not responsible for any unfunded liability with respect to the Members' Retirement Allowance Fund and the Superannuation Fund.

7. Related Party Transactions

The House of Assembly is related to all other government departments, agencies, boards and commissions included in the Province of Nova Scotia's consolidated financial statements. Its primary source of funding is through the payment of its expenses from the General Revenue Fund. Included in these statements is a receivable from the fund in the amount of $763,003.

Not reflected in these statements are contributed services from the General Revenue Fund. These include such things as the cost of central administrative services; use of government buildings; corporate payables and payroll deductions; and centralized cash flow management and banking.
