BACKGROUND

In 1998, federal, provincial and territorial governments launched the National Child Benefit (NCB) program. This program marked a basic shift of income support for children from provincial or territorial social assistance to a delivery system that promotes a consistent, non-intrusive manner. The NCB is the Government of Canada's primary means of helping families with the cost of raising children. This program is made up of two parts: the basic Child Tax Benefit (CTB), and the National Child Benefit Supplement (NCBS). These benefits are calculated by Revenue Canada through the income tax program. In Nova Scotia the program has three major objectives:

1. Help prevent and reduce the depth of child poverty
2. Promote attachment to the workforce. The goal is to have fewer families rely on social assistance and helping them into the employment system. In Nova Scotia, this has been attempted by introducing a new Bill in the House of Assembly, the Employment Support and Income Assistance Act.
3. Reduce the duplication and overlap within the system that provides children's programs. In order to do this Nova Scotia has tried to standardize the approach made both provincially and federally.

In Nova Scotia, there is a standard annual benefit of $1700 per child, for families who have a net income less than $16,000 per year. In Nova Scotia the provincial and federal governments work together. Almost 60,000 children in low-income families will receive the Nova Scotia Child Benefit.

Nova Scotia Child Benefit
Maximum Benefits to Family Net Income of $15,999 Effective July 2001

	July 2001 Annual Benefit	July 2001 Monthly Benefit
1st Child	$ 445.00	$ 37.08
2nd Child	$ 645.00	$ 53.75

A multi-year approach in the areas of pricing and taxation, smoke-free legislation, policy treatment, cessation programs, community-based programming, youth smoking prevention, media and public awareness, monitoring and evaluation is planned.

The goal of Nova Scotia's Comprehensive Tobacco Strategy is to reduce disease, disability and death caused by tobacco use by preventing youth initiation of tobacco use, supporting cessation among youth and adults and eliminating exposure to second-hand tobacco smoke. The Department of Health

Mr. Roger Winchester, Board Member

Ms. Susan MacAskill, Assistant Chapter Services Manager - Atlantic Region

BACKGROUND

Mothers Against Drunk Driving Canada (MADD) is a registered charitable organization. MADD is a nonprofit, grassroots organization with chapters throughout the country. MADD Chapters are run by volunteers and include not only mothers, but fathers, friends, business professionals, experts in the drunk driving field and concerned citizens who want to make a difference in the fight against impaired driving.

MADD aims to heighten awareness about the dangers of impaired driving and offer support services to the victims, and to save lives. The organization is composed of 44 Chapters across Canada. The Digby Chapter is just one of those Chapters.

The Digby County Chapter was chartered by Roger and Helena Winchester in 1997. Since 1997, the Digby Chapter has created and organized a community action group that promotes the mission of MADD Canada at the local level. The Digby Chapter is now participating in several major community events throughout the year. Numerous lectures are given by the volunteers to young drivers at local driving schools. These lectures are effective among young drivers and are presented in such a way that students become actively involved in the activities and the exchange of information.

The Digby Chapter also formed a partnership with the Class of 2000 of the Digby Regional High Schools to create the First Annual Operation Prom Night.

Operation Prom Night

This event took place over a seven-day period in the Spring of 2000. It required the participation of numerous students. The program provided check-in point activities, preventative lectures among peers and the opportunity to share information with adult participants. A full scale mock accident involving graduating students, RCMP, local fire departments, ambulance departments and other volunteers also took place.

A very close relationship has developed between the Class of 2000 and the Members of the Digby MADD Chapter. Operation Prom Last night has continued to be a great success in Digby County and MADD Canada Chapters throughout Nova Scotia and the entire country has shown interest in this project.

Visitation Program

The visitation program is an activity or presentation provided by the Digby Chapter of MADD to a group of people with the objective of educating the participants against drinking and driving and to impact the awareness of the tragic consequences of impaired driving. This program is designed to be versatile and to fit various audiences of all age groups and backgrounds. Multimedia and interactive presentations are used because of their effectiveness on the majority of participants in the program.

RCMP Statistics

- In Canada, there is one death due to drunk driving every six hours;
- Canada wide in 1995, there were 1,529 people killed due to alcohol related crashes.
- Alcohol is involved in approximately 42% of all motor vehicle fatalities;
- Alcohol is involved in 73% of all snowmobile and all terrain vehicle crashes;
- Persons between the ages of 16-24 years old are at the highest percentage of people involved in fatal vehicle crashes (Alcohol and non-alcohol related);
- Among those who drink and operate a motor vehicle 25% admit to drinking and driving after drinking; 65% said that they have done so in the past month; and

“PHYSICAL ACTIVITY IN CHILDREN AND YOUTH”

THURSDAY, MAY 23, 2002

WITNESSES

Sport and Recreation Commission

Mr. Tony Martin, Deputy Head and Chief Executive Officer

Mr. Mike Arthur, Director of Community Development

BACKGROUND

The purpose of the Sport and Recreation Commission (SRC) is to enhance the quality of life of Nova Scotians through the development, encouragement, establishment, coordination, implementation and promotion of sport and recreational programs and services. The system is primarily run by volunteers. There are 80 provincial organizations throughout the province with six regional offices.

The SRC have outlined the following goals:

Participation

Increase participation in structured and unstructured opportunities for sport, recreation, fitness and play

Facilities

Increase availability and sustainability of physical infrastructure for sport and recreation

Leadership

Increase the availability and sustainability of individual leaders in sport and recreation.

Community Capacity

Increase commitment and ability of communities and organizations to provide sport and recreation opportunities.

There is a growing national and international interest in disease prevention. Researchers have determined that there is a recognized link between physical activity and health. Currently, 250,000 Nova Scotians regularly take part in various sporting activities. In the Fall of 2000 a study was completed in Nova Scotia that measured the level of physical inactivity in children. From that study the SRC developed a new initiative

Physically Active Children and Youth Strategy / Active Kids, Healthy Kids

An interdepartmental Committee known as the Physically Active Children and Youth Committee was formed to develop a strategy responsible for coordinated the provincial effort to increase the number of children and youth that are active enough for health benefits by 10 per cent by the year 2003.

Research clearly shows that participation in physical activity and recreation helps promote long-term health benefits, prevents crime, develops youth leadership skills, enhances student academic performances and strengthens personal development. There are disturbing trends toward the number of children and youth who are physically inactive and leading sedentary lifestyles. There are an increasing number of overweight and obese children in Nova Scotia and diagnosis of type two diabetes is on the increase. The SRC in Nova Scotia has developed the Active Kids Healthy Kids program in order to combat some of these problems.

The objectives of the program are as follows:

- Identify the percentage of children and youth in Nova Scotia who regularly meet the daily standard of 60 minutes of accumulated moderate physical activity in a 24-hour period;
- Accurately track changes in physical activity levels in Nova Scotia children and youth over a several year period;
- Organize the development and implementation of physical activity, recreation or sport opportunities for children and youth;
- Increase the knowledge of academics, professionals, volunteers and the general public regarding the level of physical activity of children and youth in Nova Scotia;
- Identify factors impacting on activity levels; and
- Develop an infrastructure (ie equipment and leadership) to conduct separately funded research and interventions on special populations such as children with asthma, those at risk for diabetes, children with disabilities and children of Aboriginal communities.

MATTERS OF DISCUSSION

There were a number of matters discussed with the witnesses during the meeting. Outlined below are the topics that the Committee focused on during the meeting:

- Active Kids, Health Kids program, available resources for the program;
- Facility development program, community involvement in planning recreational facilities;
- Physical education programs in schools, access to schools after hours for community groups, P3 schools;
- Economic factors behind inactivity rates, fees for sport, lower income families and the cost of sporting activities;

PHOENIX YOUTH PROGRAMS

THURSDAY, JUNE 6, 2002

WITNESSES

Phoenix Youth Progress Centre

Mr. Tim Crooks, Executive Director

Ms. Patti Melanson, Health Services Coordinator

Mr. Steven Mabey, Treasurer - Board of Directors

BACKGROUND

The Phoenix Youth Program was founded in 1984. Phoenix Youth Programs recognizes the value of all youth and strives for a world where youth live with dignity, free from oppression, in a safe environment. Phoenix Youth Programs support at risk and homeless youth within the extended community. The program is geared to break the cycle of homelessness by offering a wide range of programs and services. The program strives to be a meaningful presence and a voice for social injustice in the lives of the youth that it serves.

A primary innovative feature of the Program is that through the diversity of programs and services available there is a continuum of care provided. This care includes crisis intervention, long term support and structured living environments, academic and pre-employment training and aftercare services. Phoenix Youth Programs works to provide the necessary interventions and assistance to address the individual needs of at-risk and homeless youth. The Program recognizes that a successful and lasting transition from despair to hope is one that takes time and necessitates the application of comprehensive, creative and flexible support.

Since its inception in 1984, the Phoenix Youth Programs has received significant and lasting community support. The Program had been recognized for innovative and creative service delivery. This has allowed the program to successfully raise funds to support their work. In 2002-2003 the fund-raising goals have been set for $355,000. The Program is also hoping to receive $250,000 In-Kind donations. The Program receives a wide range of support from community groups, service clubs, faith groups, foundations, corporations, schools and private individuals. The program has 184 volunteers.

The following is a brief outline of the individual programs offered by Phoenix Youth Programs:

Phoenix Youth Shelter
