SPEAKER'S RULING

Hon. Mr. Speaker made the following ruling on a Point of Privilege made by the Hon. Mr. Russell, Government House Leader, regarding Acceptability of remarks in the Legislature on a previous day:

“All members will remember that the honourable member for Preston was in debate at the time and made mention of an issue that was before the House, but particularly brought reference to another member in the House and asked how that member would feel if in fact his son was killed - the issue at the time was in regard to ATVs.

I have read it and looked at the issue with regard to a point of order, point of privilege, and I don't think it really fits with either one of those, but certainly I believe, personally, that it would fall within the realm of being unparliamentary within this House and all Houses, and I think the members would agree. If you read the transcript I think you would see that we certainly don't want the level of debates to get down to where we are suggesting anything tragic like this to another member or, in fact, any type of issue that is before the House, to make it a personal issue.

I appreciate the fact that one of the Deputy Speakers was in the Chair at the time, and we spoke about it afterwards. I think if I had been in the Chair I would have brought it to the attention of the House that I believed the comments were unparliamentary, and I would hope that members would reflect upon this in the future in regard to comments that are made, particularly in the heat of the moment, and in debate.

My ruling would be that I certainly believe the comments were unparliamentary, and I ask all members in the future to cease from those types of comments.”
